We have had referred to us a memorial to this General Assembly from the Indiana Presbytery requesting the General Assembly to adopt the rule that the General Assembly shall pay out of its treasury the expenses of an authorized representative to the General Assembly from each Board that is required to report to the General Assembly. We recommend that such a rule be not adopted.

In the Report of the Board of Trustees, referred to us, we find the announcement of the death of E. T. Porter, a member of the Board, with the request that Dr. J. M. Zarecor be appointed to fill the vacancy. We recommend that the request be granted.

We note with pleasure the statement that the Treasurer of the Board has invested the Doherty fund in safe interest-bearing bonds yielding six per cent. interest per annum, and that the interest on the same will be due in July next.

In the same report the statement is also made that the Treasurer has collected the remainder of the Finley bequest, which, after necessary expenses are deducted, amounts to eight hundred and fifty dollars, which is the full and final balance due the Church from the estate and bequest of John P. Finley, deceased. We recommend that you order the money to be turned over to the Trustees of Cumberland University, in accordance with the order of the last General Assembly.

The Board announce that they have not collected any of the thousand-dollar bequest made by James Wilhite, but that they have made a formal demand for the money, and believe it will be paid without unnecessary delay.

The sum of twelve hundred dollars of the Samuel Woldridge bequest has been collected, and is now at the disposal of the General Assembly. We recommend that, in accordance with the well-known desire of the donor, this fund be placed in the hands of the Trustees of Cumberland University for the benefit of the Beard Endowment of the Theological Department of said University. W. S. DANLEY, Chairman.

On motion, the Trustees of the Church were directed to pay over to the Trustees of Cumberland University the fund of $1,200 in their hands, and known in this report as the Samuel Woldridge fund, and take a proper receipt for the same.

REPORT NO. 1 OF COMMITTEE ON OVERTURES.

Report No. 1 of the Committee on Overtures was presented and read, and was then amended and adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Overtures have examined the memorials referred to us from the following Presbyteries, each of which suggests various changes in the Confession of Faith and Book of Discipline: Tehuacana, Colorado, Foster, Bonham, Indiana, Kirksville, and Talladega.

Your committee feel that the changes proposed would not prevent considerable discussion after their report was presented to your body, and thereby lead to a further reference to them with instructions; and believing that it would be more satisfactory to the memorialists and to the general Church that the suggestions therein contained be fully and amply discussed in a Committee of the Whole, therefore we would request that the said memorials be referred back to your body for final action.

A. J. MCGLUMPHY, Chairman.

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON OVERTURES.

Report No. 2 of Committee on Overtures was adopted, as follows:

Your committee have carefully considered the memorial of the World's Arbitration League, organized about two years ago, with head-quarters at Washington, D. C., its object being to call the attention of the different nations of the earth to the propriety and practicability of forming a compact by which all international disputes can be settled without resort to arms. Since the object of this organization is in accordance with the teachings of the great Head of the Church, your committee would recommend hearty concurrence with this laudable and humane enterprise.

A. J. MCGLUMPHY, Chairman.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance made a report, which was amended, and adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following:

With feelings of laudable pride we would state that the Cumberland Presbyterian Church occupies no equivocal ground on the subject of temperance, and in our report we can but reaffirm and emphasize the deliverances of former General Assemblies.

That intemperance is a prolific source of pauperism, ignorance, vice, and crime, is now an admitted fact by the patriot, statesman, and philanthropist, as well as by the Christian Church. It is the destroyer of reputation, happiness, and character; it is also the tempter of youth, the bane of society, the blot on our civilization, the open antagonist of the Church, and the impious enemy of God.

We rejoice to report that the long-prayed-for day is now dawning upon us when the great heart and conscience of the nation are awakening and quickening to the dire effects of this terrible evil. Several States in the western part of the Union have determined, by the enactment of prohibitory laws, to drive the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors from their borders, and in the period of time that has elapsed since the passage of these laws crime has sensibly diminished, and wealth, prosperity, and godliness greatly increased. Many of the Southern States have passed laws that practically abolish the sale of intoxicating liquors throughout their large territory. In some States the evil and pernicious effects of alcoholic liquors have been introduced into the text-books of the public schools, and in other States temperance has assumed an almost political significance.

While your reverend body, as the servants of the Lord Jesus Christ should at all times render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and avoid entangling itself with the jarring discords of the world, yet we realize the fact that, in order to meet the mighty tide of iniquity that has been sweeping down for ages in its remorseless current the hopes, happiness, and fortunes of thousands—its direful flood made more appalling by the tears and woe of pure and innocent sufferers—will require the mightiest energies, as well as the prayers of the entire Church. We would, therefore, recommend:

1. That we aid the growing public sentiment through our respective States by giving our hearty coöperation to all efforts and organizations that have for their object the suppression of the liquor traffic, and by supporting men for judicial and legislative positions who are known as temperate, sober men.

2. That greater prominence be given to this subject in our Sunday-schools by devoting occasionally the lesson-hour exclusively to this subject, or where practicable, by holding a temperance meeting during the week for the children of the Church.

3. That we heartily indorse the various societies that are doing so much to aid us in temperance reform, and especially would we commend the several State Temperance Alliances, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Order of Good Templars, the Young Men's Christian Association, and the Band of Hope.

4. That we give public recognition to the fact that the growing sentiment in favor of temperance throughout our bounds is greatly indebted to the space devoted to this subject by the editors of the Cumberland Presbyterian, St. Louis Observer, Texas Observer, and Our Messenger.

5. As Tuesday, May 27th, has been selected by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union as a day of special prayer for Divine guidance in the selection of discreet and godly men by the great political parties in the approaching conventions, where practicable and convenient, we recommend that this suggestion be adopted.

Respectfully submitted. H. A. JONES, Chairman.

Under the Standing Rule, the Report of the Committee on Missions was called for, but the committee not being ready to report, further time was given.

PLACE AND TIME FOR NEXT MEETING.

Bentonville, Ark., was selected as the place, and the third Thursday of May, 1885, was fixed as the time, for the next meeting of the General Assembly.

The General Assembly took recess until 8 o'clock P.M.

MONDAY, May 19, 8 o'clock P.M.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE—REVISION.

On motion, the General Assembly went into Committee of the Whole to consider memorials from certain Presbyteries on the subject of Revision. After having finished its work, the Committee of the Whole rose, and the Chairman reported that, after considering the memorials which had been presented to the General Assembly on Revision, a memorial coming from McMinnville Presbytery had been adopted as expressing the sentiment of the Committee. He further reported that the Committee desired the General Assembly to adopt said memorial also, and to concur in its recommendation, which the Assembly then did, the memorial being as follows:

The following preambles and resolutions were adopted by the McMinnville Presbytery May 3, 1884, to-wit:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly did, while in session at Austin, Texas, in May, 1881, appoint a committee of able and discreet men to revise the Confession of Faith and Form of Government of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, so that said Confession might express clearly and accurately the doctrines taught from our pulpits and by our press, and that our Form of Government might conform in all its points to the usages of the Church; and,

WHEREAS, Said committee, after carefully revising the Confession of Faith and Form of Government, submitted their work to the General Assembly, in session at Huntsville, Ala., in May, 1882; and,

WHEREAS, Said General Assembly, in Committee of the Whole, did consider the subject, item by item, and after recommending certain amendments, adopted the Revised Confession of Faith and Form of Government, transmitting the same to the Presbyteries for their approval or disapproval; and,

WHEREAS, The Revised Confession of Faith and Form of Government were approved with great unanimity by a large majority of the Presbyteries, thereby becoming the Faith and Government of the Church; therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Presbytery that it is unwise to agitate the subject of alteration or change in the Confession of Faith and Form of Government so soon after its almost unanimous approval by the whole Church, saying to the outside world that we are dissatisfied with our theological status.

Resolved, That this Presbytery, by these preambles and resolutions, do memorialize the General Assembly which meets at McKeesport, Pa., on the 15th inst., to advise all her judicatures and individual members to desist (at least for the present) from the agitation of alteration or change in the Faith and Government of the Church. J. T. BARBEE, Stated Clerk McMinnville Presbytery.

The General Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

FIFTH DAY.

TUESDAY, May 20, 9 o'clock A.M.

The General Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

THE BIBLE AS A TEXT-BOOK.

A communication, signed by a number of pastors in the city of Chicago, Ill., pertaining to a closer study of the Bible as a text-book in Sabbath-schools, was referred to the Committee on Sabbath-schools.

REPORT NO. 1 OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

Report No. 1 of the Committee on Judiciary was adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Judiciary report as follows on the papers submitted for consideration:

1. A paper from the Talladega Presbytery touching an action of the Alabama Synod.

It appears, as set forth in that paper, that the Alabama Synod, in accordance with its own adjournment, met on Thursday before the third Sabbath in October, 1883, and organized and transacted business. It is said in the paper submitted that "the stated time for the meeting of said Synod is, and has been for many years, Thursday before the fourth Sabbath in October."

There appears to have been no objection at the time, and you are simply asked to say whether the Synod which met on Thursday before the third Sabbath in October, 1883, was a legal Synod.

Your committee find that questions coming from a lower to a higher court must come "by general review and control, reference, appeal, or complaint." They are of opinion that the paper in this case comes under neither, and is, therefore, not properly before this body.

2. A question from the Foster Presbytery, asking you to decide the status of certain members of a Church within its bounds.

The case is this: The Session of the Mt. Vernon Congregation consisted of three elders. Two of them asked for letters, that they might go into a new organization. The letters were not granted, but said elders were taken into the new organization. You are asked to decide the question, "Where do they belong now?" The Presbytery decided that they should still be regarded as members of the Mt. Vernon Congregation.

Your committee hold that should a review of this action be asked, the Synod is the proper tribunal for its reference.

3. The Miami Presbytery asks whether it is right or expedient under the organic law of our Church for a Session to use the Board of Trustees of the Church to do the work of a Board of Deacons where it is not possible to have a Board of Deacons.

Your committee regard this matter beyond the jurisdiction of the General Assembly as presented.

For the reasons given above your committee recommend that the questions propounded be not answered by this body.

D. M. PRENDERGAST, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Report of the Committee on Ministerial Relief was presented, and after discussion on several items thereof, it was laid on the table till after the consideration of the Report of the Committee on Publication.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION.

Under the Standing Rule, the Report of the Committee on Publication was presented, and pending discussion thereon, the General Assembly, on motion, took recess until 2 o'clock P.M.

TUESDAY, May 20, 2 o'clock P.M.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION.

The General Assembly resumed the consideration of the Report of the Committee on Publication, which was amended and adopted as follows:

Your Committee on Publication submit the following report:

We have examined the Report of your Board of Publication, which has been referred to us, and note with pleasure the progress of the past year. We would recommend:

1. That all possible care be exercised to avoid the insertion of advertisements of an improper character in the Cumberland Presbyterian.

2. We recommend that the Board give special attention to the publishing of books as soon as practicable, and to this end we suggest that the Board employ a book-editor, with competent compensation.

3. We have had referred to us memorials from the Synod of Illinois and the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, asking for a reduction in the cost of the Sabbath-school literature. We would recommend that such reduction be made as in the judgment of the Board may seem wise.

4. Memorials from the Presbyteries of Miami and Chillicothe, asking that the Confession of Faith and Form of Government be published in permanent form. We would recommend that such publication be made as soon as possible, and that the Revs. S. G. Burney, T. C. Blake, and C. H. Bell, and Ruling Elder John Frizzell, shall read the proof of the same, and the Rev. T. C. Blake be remunerated for his services, and that the proof-texts of the Confession be printed in the manner of the old Confession of Faith.

5. That the form of the Cumberland Presbyterian, and the propriety of publishing a sermon each week, be left to the judgment of the Board.

6. We have carefully considered the memorial of Indiana Presbytery, asking that the blanks of the statistical table be made more complete. We recommend that the following changes be made in the blank given in the statistical table of the General Assembly:

After the item, Foreign Missions, insert Amount Contributed to the Woman's Board; following this, Amount Contributed to Board of Ministerial Relief. After the item, Publication, insert Amount Contributed for Church-extension. Omit the items Charity and American Bible Society, and insert Miscellaneous.

7. That the valuation of the Cumberland Presbyterian be fixed at $30,000.

Respectfully submitted. J. W. STONE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Report of the Committee on Ministerial Relief was again taken up, and was amended and adopted as follows:

The Committee on Ministerial Relief would report that they have had under careful consideration the third Annual Report of the Board of Ministerial Relief; that they have been much gratified in noting the evidences of increased prosperity and usefulness of the Board—more rapid and marked than during any other year of its history. This brings gratitude and joy to the heart of every loyal Cumberland Presbyterian.

In the Report of the Special Committee appointed in 1880, the following sentence occurs: "The Church cannot properly recognize its duty, and acknowledge its obligations toward this class of ministers, except through its highest judicature, and by means of a General Board or Committee, organized and operating under its supervision." To make an undertaking a complete success there must be a centralization of effort. Wisdom and effort must come together in a given system; they must flow out together from the same system to gladden and relieve. We have this system, this home of relief, in the Board of Ministerial Relief recently organized in our Church.

We do not, as a Church, realize the situation. There is a solemn responsibility laid on us to care for the worn-out veterans in our household of faith. We have said too long, "Be ye clothed and be ye fed." We must show our love for these men of God and their families by our works. Beautiful eulogies will not sustain life; the hand of help will bring down the Master's benediction, and bring out the old soldier's "God bless you." Some sister denominations—even the Catholics and Jews—have Homes and Boards, or both, for this class of their people, and we should not fall behind our neighbors in this Christ-like work of caring for the aged, the infirm, the widow, and the orphan. What nobler sight than to see the arms of the Church thrown around the deserving in these classes of her people! "Man's inhumanity to man" is even provided against by Orders and Secret Societies, which show anxiety for the disabled in their organizations. The Church would be criminally responsible if it should neglect those in want—worn out in her service. Here, faith is not business; sentimentalism is not duty. "Inasmuch as ye have done it to the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it to me."

1. We congratulate the Church in having such a faithful, prudent, and energetic Board to look after the worn-out and needy ones in her fold. "Well done, good and faithful servants."

2. We would call attention to and emphasize strongly the order of the last General Assembly (see Minutes, page 23), viz.: "That each Presbytery appoint a Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, which shall report semi-annually (1st of April and 1st of October) to the Board all parties in the bounds of said Presbytery who are entitled to beneficence."

3. We would further recommend that the Presbyteries conduct all their relief work through the General Assembly's Board. The reasons for this systematized work are obvious to every one. And, furthermore, that this Presbyterial Committee call the attention of each Church within the bounds of its respective Presbytery especially to this subject, by letter or otherwise, during the early part of October, the first month of the quarter named by the General Assembly for that purpose; and for the proper discharge of this duty they shall be accountable to the Presbytery.

4. We urgently recommend that the Sabbath before the 25th day of December in each year, or as near that time as possible, be set apart for this special purpose; that sermons be preached and contributions taken on that day, or those days, and the same forwarded to the Treasurer of the Board, at Evansville, Ind.

5. We also recommend that the Board continue its appropriations to the executor of the Rev. Hiram A. Hunter, as its fund will allow, until the expenses of his sickness and burial are fully met.

Respectfully submitted. J. P. SPROWLS, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

The Committee on Missions made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Missions have carefully considered the several papers referred to them, and especially the extended and very able Report of your Board of Missions, which embodies also the Annual Report of the Japan Mission, a paper which we trust will command the universal attention of our Church.

We have no criticisms to make on your Board. We trust its honored President and all its members will continue in the great work to which we believe God has called them, and which they are performing so wisely and faithfully.

In regard to the report from Japan, it is very gratifying to notice the coming together for conference of all the missionaries of the various Protestant denominations represented there in a spirit that proclaimed in the face of heathenism the essential unity of the body of Christ. We note also the general outpouring of the Spirit in that land, and that our own mission-churches recently planted there shared largely in this blessing, and that the increase in the number of their communicants was some eighty-five per cent. during the past year—for all of which we give devout thanks to God.

Our missionaries in Japan again send up the cry for reënforcements, the need of which, they say, "no words can adequately set forth." The ripened harvest of that "Land of the Rising Sun" they fitly represent as God's call to the Church for laborers to enter into the field. Now is the accepted time. The old religions are rapidly waning, but Materialism and other forms of infidelity are coming in; and if Japan does not soon become truly Christian, its last state may be even worse than the first.

We cannot too much lay it to heart that all necessary reënforcements—both in missionaries and the means of their support—must come from God, and that all will be given if the Church is truly awakened and draws near to him.

The amount of money needed for the prosecution of the work in Japan for the forces now in that field, for reënforcements in missionaries and for educational work, is only $21,215—that is, about eighteen cents to each member of the Church; and the whole amount asked by our Board for Home and Foreign Missions, and for Church Erection, is $95,935.44—that is, less than eighty cents to each member of the Church. Do you say we cannot raise this sum? In our own strength we can do nothing, but through Christ we can do all things. Let us not say, then, nor imagine for one moment, that we cannot raise the means necessary for the successful prosecution of this great work. "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed and cast into the sea, and it shall be done."

It is an evidence of progress and a ground of encouragement and thanksgiving that our people are contributing more liberally, and that more of our ministers and Churches are enlisted in the work of missions, than at any former period. There was contributed last year to this cause the sum of $44,474.39, being a net increase of $10,832.44 over the year before. The reports show also an increase of one hundred and thirty-four in the number of contributing congregations, and an increase of fifty-seven in the number of coöperating ministers.

In the raising of missionary funds, as in all Church-work, a great responsibility is laid upon ministers. It is to them that we are to look for the organization of the work in every congregation, so that the whole membership shall be enlisted in this cause, and contribute to the support both of Home and Foreign Missions. All the Churches, we believe, will contribute liberally if the claims of missions are properly laid before them, and the necessary plans are devised for making collections; and we think it is generally true that if there is a failure in this matter, it is in great part attributable to the want of care, earnestness, and organizing ability on the part of the ministry. "The priest's lips shall keep knowledge, and they shall hear the law at his mouth, for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts."

In order to enlist our people in missionary work, they must have necessary information. For this purpose the circulation of our excellent Missionary Record should be greatly increased. If possible, a copy should be placed in every family throughout our bounds. But we cannot expect the accomplishment of this necessary work without the hearty coöperation of all our ministers.

Let us remember, also, that "out of the mouth of babes and sucklings God has ordained strength, that he might still the enemy and the avenger." We may expect much to be accomplished, therefore, by the organization of mission-bands of children in congregations and Sabbath-schools; and those who are thus trained in childhood will generally be devoted Christians and cheerful givers when they reach mature age. "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

In accordance with the Great Commission of our Lord, our motto for missionary work should be, "The whole wide world for Jesus." While, therefore, we should not, and must not, relax, but largely increase, our efforts for the conversion of Japan, we cannot shut our eyes to the great fact that the neighboring Republic of Mexico is a missionary field that is already white unto the harvest; and we think that, so soon as suitable men and means are provided, our Board should establish a mission in that inviting field.

But while we look abroad, and desire to carry the gospel into all the dark places of the earth, we must not forget or neglect the home-work. A great and effectual door stands open to us among three of the civilized Indian tribes, and also in many of our large towns and cities which, under God, should be made by us centers of religious power, as they are of commercial activity. Louisville, Ky., and many other places in the great basin of the Mississippi; Oakland, in California, and many other points on the Pacific slope, are earnestly asking for much-needed help. To meet these demands and carry forward this great work of Home Missions, the Board asks the sum of $25,000; and the sum of $50,000, less only a few thousand collected, is asked for Church Erection, to establish city missions without waiting the slow and difficult process of gathering building-funds from adjacent congregations. These demands upon our Church are reasonable, and the money must be contributed, or the work which God has given us to do will be greatly hindered.

We have had under consideration the letter of Mr. F. H. Peebles, of Green Brier, Ala., the executor of the will of his mother, Mrs. Sophia C. Peebles, who died in the triumphs of faith in Mooresville, Ala., February 25, 1882. From this letter, which is addressed directly to this General Assembly, we deem it proper to make the following extracts for permanent record:

"From this will," says Mr. Peebles, "I herewith submit a copy of item 11th: 'My executor shall pay to the proper authorities one thousand dollars for the Foreign Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.' In obedience to these instructions, I now and herewith hand you a check for one thousand dollars, and may the blessings of my mother's God go with it, and may his choicest gifts be ever bestowed upon the Church she so honored and loved, and for which she had labored long and earnestly with fervent prayer. 'She hath done what she could.' 'Her works do follow her.' 'Henceforth there is laid up for her a crown of rejoicing.'

"With cordial and affectionate greetings, I am, as ever, yours in the bonds of love and fellowship, F. H. PEEBLES."

The Lord has said, "Them that honor me I will honor." And "Mother Peebles," as she was called, in thus honoring Christ, has left a memorial of her faith and her name more enduring than brass or marble. And truly hers is an example worthy of imitation—an example which is encouraging and animating, and which will, we trust, in years to come, have a large following. We are not surprised, therefore, to hear that it has already prompted another noble lady of Mooresville, Ala., to contribute one hundred dollars to the same cause.

We submit for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this General Assembly receive, with devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, the one thousand dollars so generously bequeathed by "Mother Peebles," and so faithfully and courteously conveyed to us by her son, according to the provisions of her will. We direct the Board to apply the same to whatever branches of our Foreign Missionary work they may judge to be most in need of such aid.

2. Resolved, That we earnestly call the attention of all the ministers and Churches throughout our bounds to the great duty and necessity of enlisting every member, and all the children, of our Churches in missionary work.

3. Resolved, That we urge upon all our ministers and Churches the great importance of raising the several sums asked by our Board for the successful prosecution of this great work.

4. Resolved, That we recommend, in view of the magnitude of the work before us, and in view of the fact that all our help must come from God, that the second Sabbath in July be appointed for concert of prayer for Foreign Missions, and the first Sabbath in February for Home Missions.

5. Resolved, That we rejoice and give thanks to God for the great work which the devoted Christian women of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have done and are doing in the cause of Missions, and we do heartily commend the work of their Board of Foreign Missions to the sympathy and liberal support of our Churches and people.

AZEL FREEMAN, Chairman.

FRATERNAL GREETINGS.

The following communication from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was received, and it was ordered that it should be spread upon the Minutes; also that the Stated Clerk send a suitable response to the communication, which he did by telegram:

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in Council at McKeesport, Pennsylvania:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in session in the city of Philadelphia, Penn., May, 1884, unanimously adopted the following resolutions, to-wit:

1. That the Bishops and delegates of the Methodist Episcopal Church in General Conference assembled do hereby send fraternal greetings to your honorable body, and we do invoke the Divine blessing upon your labors to save souls and to win the world back to God.

2. That the Secretary of this Conference be, and he is hereby, instructed to furnish your honorable body a copy of these resolutions.

With great pleasure I forward to your honorable body a copy of the same. DAVID S. MONROE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OVERTURES.

The Committee on Overtures submitted the following report, No. 3, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Overtures have had before them memorials from McAdow and Missouri Synods, asking that they be consolidated into one Synod, to be known as the Synod of Missouri.

We recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be granted, and that the place of the first meeting be Sadalia, Mo., and the time Wednesday before the third Sabbath in October next, at 11 A.M.; and, further, that the Rev. E. D. Pearson, of Salt River Presbytery, be Moderator, and in case of his absence, then the oldest minister present.

We have also had before us a memorial from White River Synod, asking for the consolidation of the Synods of White River, Ouachita, and Arkansas into one Synod, to be known as the Synod of Arkansas. Since we have evidence that said consolidation would meet the approval of the other two Synods, we therefore recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be granted, and that the place of the first meeting be the city of Little Rock, Ark., and the time the third Thursday in October next, at 11 A.M.; and, further, that the Rev. Richard E. Lee, of Mound Prairie Presbytery, be Moderator, and in case of his absence, then the oldest minister present.

Respectfully submitted. A. J. MCGLUMPHY, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education submitted a report, which was amended and adopted as follows:

Your committee are glad to report in the outset that the spirit of education which has ever characterized the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, instead of diminishing, is decidedly increasing in vigor and intensity.

It is generally known that the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, convened in Austin, Texas, 1881, created a Board of Education. Said Board was reörganized by the General Assembly at Nashville in 1883. Your committee have received from it an unofficial statement. The function of the Board is to collect and disburse funds for the benefit of indigent students of the ministry in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Your Committee on Education respectfully and earnestly recommend the Board of Education to the General Assembly, and through it to the entire Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and beg that it be not suffered to languish for want of responses to its calls. Its purpose is to accumulate and invest funds, the interest on which shall be appropriated as before mentioned. And we recommend that the Presbyteries be instructed to report to the Board all funds raised by them for young men preparing for the ministry.

It is also known that Waynesburg College and Lincoln and Trinity Universities are prominently before the Church. These institutions not being required to make official reports to your body, it scarcely falls within the purview of this committee to make more than general reference to them. Through you, however, we earnestly recommend them, not merely to the favor, but to the devotion, of the Presbyteries and Synods within whose bounds they may be located. They have increasing and safely-invested endowments.

Besides the institutions just mentioned, it is our pleasure to report that various Presbyterial and Synodical schools have been established in various parts of the Church—one under the care of Ozark Synod, known as Ozark College; another within the bounds of West Tennessee Synod, known as Bethel College; another (exclusively for girls) within the bounds of Middle Tennessee Synod, and under its special care; and Oxford Female College, Oxford, Miss. In addition, there are various other schools of like grade, of which your committee know nothing in particular. The attempt on the part of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Missouri to collect funds for the purpose of establishing a literary college in that State is meeting with success—all of which shows that the educational sentiment of the Church is widening and deepening and becoming stronger.

The official report of the Trustees of Cumberland University, required to be submitted to your body, has been referred by you to this Committee on Education. Your committee are glad to recall your attention to the increased prosperity of that institution. The number of students for the current year is largely in excess of the number for any one of several years just past. No changes have occurred in its faculty, only it gains instead of losing. Your committee heartily commend all its departments to the patronage of the entire Church. The endowment of the Literary Department now amounts to $25,000 cash, all of which is securely invested. This fund is sacredly devoted to endowment, and cannot be appropriated to any other purpose whatever. The University already owns ample buildings.

In regard to the Theological School of Cumberland University, your committee have the pleasure of reporting that it is in better condition than it has ever been. This fact your committee beg to emphasize. The endowment fund of this department of the University is increasing, and it is both desired and expected it will soon be adequate to the support of three professors. The cash endowment now amounts to about $40,000, which is safely invested in bonds and mortgages of double the value of the loans. The grounds and buildings belonging to this department of the University are abundantly adequate to the present wants of the Church. Nothing new will be needed for years to come. No funds donated to endowment can ever be appropriated to any other purpose. Your committee respectfully but candidly submit that no enterprise now in the hands of the Church is more important than this Theological School. Now that the Board of Publication is so far relieved of embarrassment as to be virtually self-sustaining, your committee earnestly recommend that the Church devote its energies to the upbuilding of this school. It is the fundamental enterprise of the Church in this day. The Missionary Board and the Churches everywhere look to it yearly for ten times as many young ministers as it supplies. Young men from all the Presbyteries should not only be encouraged to attend it, but urged to do so. The prospect for the ensuing year, your committee are informed, is unusually encouraging. Out of one hundred and seventeen Presbyteries, why should we not have one hundred and seventeen young men in our Theological School? We should, surely.

In conclusion, your committee recommend that you instruct all the Churches throughout your bounds to raise collections for the endowment fund of the Theological School. It is a work of which, in the opinion of your committee, we should not weary until it is accomplished.

W. W. HENDRIX, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

The General Assembly resumed the consideration of the Report of the Committee on Sabbath-schools, which was amended and adopted as follows:

We believe that a better knowledge of the word of God on the part of young and old to be of the greatest importance; and as the Sabbath-school offers the best opportunity for all classes to study God's word, its interest should be carefully considered by all the higher courts of the Church, as well as by every individual Christian. We do not feel ourselves called upon to present the claims of the Sabbath-school as an institution worthy of the greatest interest. We take it for granted that every member of this General Assembly recognizes it as such. If it were not thus appreciated, the Sabbath-school has certainly so established itself by what it has done and is doing that it has only to be studied in the light of its fruits to be appreciated.

We feel sure that our Church is doing its part of this great work — not all we should do; no, but our part in comparison with other denominations. The Sabbath-school is now regarded, as never before, as a power for good among the young. This feeling is growing all the time. Our Church is actively engaged in many places in organizing and sustaining Presbyterial, Synodical, and State Sabbath-school Conventions, and to this work we give our full indorsement. Our Church is also taking an active part in the inter-denominational State and county work. From every part of the Church comes the word of our activity in this great work. We are encouraged. We rejoice in the progress we have made, yet there remains much to be done.

We regret to say that our denominational literature is not so generally used by our Sabbath-schools as it should be. We regard this as very unfortunate.

We regret also that we have not full and correct statistics of our work. The matter of statistics is an all-important one, and we call the attention of this General Assembly to it, and trust that some way will be suggested by which we can get full and correct statistics at our next General Assembly.

We recommend the following:

1. That our Board of Publication and our ministers make a vigorous effort to put our own literature in all our denominational schools.

2. That our Stated Clerk be required to get, as near as he can, full and correct statistics of our Sabbath-school work, and that he be paid so as to enable him to do the work. We recommend that statistics on the following points be collected: (1) The number of scholars, officers, and teachers in Sabbath-school; (2) the number of conversions and additions to the Church from the Sabbath-school; (3) the amount of money collected and paid for literature, missions, etc.; (4) the number of Cumberland Presbyterian children identified with other Sabbath-schools where we have none; (5) what literature they use.

3. We have carefully read the paper presented by the Rev. M. B. De Witt, and referred to us by the General Assembly. We regret to learn from this paper that the plan set on foot at the last General Assembly has not resulted in greater good. We believe the cause of this grows out of the fact that the plan provided for a committee taken from sections so far apart as not to be able to operate together successfully. We recommend that the General Superintendent of Sabbath-school Work and the Board of Publication be instructed to confer together, and to devise and carry into effect such plans as to them may be deemed most advisable to promote the general Sabbath-school work of the Church; said Board being hereby substituted for the Committee on Sabbath-school Work appointed at the last meeting of the General Assembly, with power to carry out the work prescribed for that committee.

4. We recommend the organization of Presbyterial, Synodical, and State Sabbath-school Conventions where practicable; and that you continue your sympathy to the American Sunday-school Union in its efforts to place the gospel of Christ in the hands of our destitute sections.

Concerning the circular-letter addressed to this General Assembly by a committee of ministers and Sabbath-school workers of the city of Chicago, we recommend that, while continuing the proper use of the efficient helps to Bible-study provided by our Board of Publication—keeping in mind the fact that they are but helps—every Sabbath-school teacher provide himself with, and constantly use, a copy of the Bible in preparing and teaching the lesson, and that every Sabbath-school scholar, so far as able, provide himself with a copy of God's word, and that those not able be supplied out of the Sabbath-school fund; and that so far as practicable the Sabbath-school lessons in the public exercises of the school be read only from the Bible itself, and not from the lesson-leaves or helps; and, further, that all Sabbath-school teachers be urged to invariably use only the Bible in actual class-work.

Respectfully submitted. J. H. HENDRICK, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance report the following:

The Sabbath is a holy day, instituted in the days of man's primeval innocence, and continuously observed by man until the Law was given to Israel by God, through Moses, on the tables of stone.

Its sanctity was enjoined upon all men, and the command for its observance runs parallel with the history of the human family; and throughout the word of God the greatest blessings were promised to those who maintained its sanctity, and the greatest punishment threatened on those who violated its sacred and benign commands.

The history of the children of Israel, and God's dealings with the nations of the earth, teach us that if we turn away from doing our pleasure on his holy day, and if we call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable, and shall honor him, not doing our own ways, nor finding our own pleasures, nor speaking our own words, then God will cause us to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed us with the heritage of Jacob, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

We would respectfully refer your reverend body to the deliverances of the General Assembly through former years, but we feel that the tendencies of the age in which we live demand profound and prayerful consideration on the part of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the Sabbath question.

While we do not recognize the right of the civil government to interfere in the affairs of the Christian Church further than the protection of all citizens in their right to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience, so long as said worship is not in violation of the peace, happiness, or morality of the nation; yet, at the same time, we assert the fact that this nation was founded by Christian men, and that the genius of our holy Christianity is enstamped upon the constitutions of all the States in the Union, and especially have the people, through their respective Legislatures, specifically guarded the sanctity of the Sabbath-day.

During the last decade the tide of foreign immigration has brought to our shores a vast population from the nations of Continental Europe, where the sanctity of the Sabbath is not, nor ever has been, observed. The result of this large influx to the population of our cities is growing in serious effect every passing year. Added to this non-Sabbath observing class we have the large native non-religious classes aiding them in clamorously demanding the repeal of all laws that close up places of amusement, places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, and the rendezvous of the vicious.

Government was founded for the safety, peace, and happiness of the entire people. We believe that the quiet and peaceful observance of the Sabbath-day, as enforced by the statutes of the respective States, is not only conducive to, but absolutely necessary for, the perpetuity of our holy Christianity.

By reference to the Minutes of the General Assembly, in its session at Memphis, Tenn., 1879, we find that a Standing Committee was appointed on the Prevention of the Desecration of the Sabbath, to report as other Standing Committees of your body. We would, therefore, recommend:

1. That your ministers be urged to set the example to their flocks and the community by rigidly observing this holy day; by discouraging the prevalent reading of secular papers on that day, and the insertion of Church notices and services in the Sabbath issues of said papers, and by needless railroad travel, even to fill pulpit engagements.

2. That the Church be urged to discountenance the growing sentiment throughout the States of repealing the laws called Sunday Laws, which are the bulwark of our civil and religious liberties.

H. A. JONES, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MILEAGE.

The Committee on Mileage of Commissioners made a report, which was laid on the table, and then, on motion, Ruling Elder John Frizzell was appointed a Committee of One on Mileage of Commissioners, with the request that he report at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

DELEGATES TO THE PAN-PRESBYTERIAN COUNCIL.

The following report from the committee appointed to fill vacancies in the delegation to the Pan-Presbyterian Council was adopted:

Your committee appointed by the last General Assembly to fill vacancies in the delegation to the Pan-Presbyterian Council, to meet in Belfast, Ireland, June 24, 1884, respectfully report as follows:

The General Assembly of 1882 appointed delegates to attend said Council. We have learned by correspondence that, of those originally appointed, only these have hope of being able to attend: Ministers A. J. Baird, B. G. McLeskey, D. M. Harris, W. J. Darby, W. H. Black, S. McBride, J. M. Hubbert, and Ruling Elder A. C. Stewart. There being a number of vacancies, we have appointed as delegates the following persons, who are expecting to attend the Council: Ministers W. W. Hendrix, J. W. Fitzgerald, J. L. Goodknight, P. R. Danley, and Ruling Elders H. J. Schapfer, W. D. McLaughlin, and M. A. Montgomery. We ask that instructions be given to the Stated Clerk to issue a properly certified Commission to each of the delegates named herein, and to any others whom we may appoint.

A. J. McGLUMPHY, Chairman.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH EVANGELICAL UNION.

The following communication from the Committee on Correspondence with the Evangelical Union of Scotland was received, and it was ordered that the copy of the letter herein referred to be printed with the Minutes of the General Assembly:

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at McKeesport, Penn., May, 1884:

The committee appointed by the last General Assembly to respond to the fraternal greetings of the Evangelical Union of Scotland report that a fraternal letter was sent, as contemplated in our appointment, a copy of which is herewith inclosed, but owing to the fact that the Stated Clerk did not notify us of our appointment, and not learning it until the appearance of the printed Minutes of last General Assembly, we are fearful that it did not reach its destination in time for the last Annual Conference of that body.

Respectfully submitted. W. B. FARR, Clerk of Committee.

SYNODICAL REPORTS.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Alabama and Missouri made their reports, and the records were approved.

The Committees on the Records of the following Synods reported that no Minutes had come to hand: Arkansas, Central Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Middle Tennessee, Ouachita, Pacific, Texas, and Trinity.

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

The Committee on Judiciary submitted a majority report, also a minority report, these reports being as follows:

MAJORITY REPORT.

Your Committee on Judiciary have had under consideration a memorial from Mississippi Synod, asking your body to "either make our own Manual so full that it will meet all the questions of parliamentary law, or adopt in toto Robert's Rules of Order."

Your committee are of opinion that our Manual, as amended in 1882, is ample, and they recommend that no changes be made at present.

They have also considered the case from McAdow Synod, referred to them by your body. It appears that said Synod, at its session for 1883, organized and regularly elected a Moderator. On the second day of its session it took recess until 2 o'clock P.M. At that hour the Moderator was absent. The Stated Clerk then called the Synod to order, and without declaring the office vacant, the Synod elected another Moderator.

This action of the Synod your committee consider irregular. We are of opinion that it is contemplated, under our Form of Government, that the Moderator elected at the organization of our Church-courts, at their regular sessions, should hold his office until the next stated meeting of such court; and to make the election of another at an earlier date regular, the office should in some way have first become vacant, and this fact should appear on record.

D. M. PRENDERGAST, Chairman.

MINORITY REPORT.

I heartily concur in the opinion given by my associates in the above report, except as to the case of the McAdow Synod. In the case last named I dissent, for the reason that I find no legal impropriety therein, nor any violation of the General Regulations of the Church already adopted by the General Assembly, and now in force, and deem it unwise for this General Assembly to make any further judicial deliverance therein.

T. J. ROSS, Member of Committee.

The foregoing majority report was adopted.

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance submitted the following Report No. 2, which was adopted:

We recommend that this account be paid.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. G. W. Eichelberger, was adopted:

Resolved, That this General Assembly ask the Presbyteries throughout the Church to demand of their Stated Clerks full and complete statistical reports from the congregations within their jurisdictions.

PAPERS ON PRESBYTERIANISM.

The following communication from the Rev. M. B. De Witt was read, and it was ordered that the papers referred to therein shall be requested for publication, at the discretion of the Board of Publication:

To the Moderator and Members of the General Assembly:

As the only member present of the committee appointed at the last meeting of the General Assembly to secure a number of addresses on various phases of Presbyterianism, I would report that the Rev. R. V. Foster and the Rev. D. M. Harris are present, having consented to deliver addresses, and I have the manuscript of an address of the Rev. W. S. Campbell. At what time will the Assembly hear the addresses?

M. B. DE WITT.

To the Cumberland Presbyterian and other Churches and the citizens of McKeesport, for the hospitality and general kindness with which we have been entertained during our sessions.

To various railroad and steamboat companies for their liberality in permitting Commissioners and visitors to this General Assembly to pass over their respective lines at reduced rates.

To Churches of other denominations in this city which have kindly tendered the use of their houses of worship to this General Assembly.

And, finally, to the Moderator for the impartiality, courtesy, dignity, and ability with which he has presided over the deliberations of this body; also, to the Clerks for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged their duties.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. A. Freeman, was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That we hereby express our deep sympathy with the Rev. W. M. Houston, delegate to this General Assembly from Willamette Presbytery, Oregon, who has been prevented by severe sickness from being present at any of the meetings or deliberations of this body.

I.—MISSIONS.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

To the General Assembly, at McKeesport, Pa., May 15, 1884:

The Divine Head of the Church has favored us with another prosperous year of work in Christian Missions at home and abroad. The elaborate report from our Japan Mission, containing a fund of information touching the various points of vital interest relating to our foreign work, is not only made a part of this annual statement of the Board, but is incorporated therein, and is as follows:

Annual Report of the Japan Mission.

To the Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.:

Two events of great importance in their influence upon the cause of Christ in Japan have occurred during the past year. One of these was the Missionary Conference which convened at Osaka, April 16th–22d inclusive. This Conference was of great value, both retrospectively and prospectively. It formed one of those stand-points from which a glance could be made over the whole field of the work accomplished in this land during the brief period covered by the history of Protestant Missions therein.

The origin of Mission-work in this country, so far as represented by Protestant Christianity, is a fitting illustration of that overruling wisdom of God by means of which it can be said, "Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee." It was the deep hatred and prejudice of Japanese against Christianity, voiced in the expression of one of their high officials, that incited those preliminary steps which led to the introduction of Missions into a country so bitterly hostile to Christ.

About a quarter of a century ago the officers of a United States Naval ship, anchored in the Nagaski harbor, were invited to a feast by a prominent Japanese residing in that port. On board of that boat, and included amongst the invited guests, were three men who now stand high in missionary circles, and who have wrought nobly in these Oriental lands. These were Dr. S. Wells Williams, the Rev. Dr. Sayles, then Chaplain of the British Legation, and the Chaplain of the war vessel. In the course of the conversation then interchanged, the host remarked, with evident bitterness, "Gentlemen, we want in our country your school systems, your telegraphs, your railroads, steamboats, and all your modern mechanical improvements; but there is one thing that we do not want, and that is your Christian religion." So deeply impressed were those three Christians by this remark, that when they returned to the gunboat they made Japan a subject for special prayer, and arranged to correspond with Mission Boards in their respective countries, and urge upon them the occupancy of this land for Christ. Out of this agreement sprang an able and earnest correspondence with various Boards in England and America, which resulted in the sending of missionaries.

As soon as Japan was opened to the Western World, came missionaries first from America. The earliest missionaries were upon the field in 1859, taking up their residence at Yokohama. From the very beginning, they were confronted with immense difficulties. Edicts, making the profession of Christianity a crime punishable with death, were publicly posted in every prominent place. A difficult language had to be mastered, the habits and customs of the people learned, not only for themselves, but as a foundation for the use of their subsequent co-laborers and successors.

The first Church was formed in 1872 in Yokohama. Since that date, including a decade of years, gathered this Conference of Missionaries, representing eighteen foreign societies and a native Church of about five thousand communicants. The Conference came together in the spirit of prayer. All shades of Episcopacy, all the various Presbyterian and Methodist bodies, and different nationalities, came together in a oneness of spirit that proclaimed the essential unity of the body of Christ. The influence of this meeting has been, and will continue to be, felt for good along different lines of Mission-work in Japan. It will give a greater insight into the work to those Christians in America who have the cause of Missions in this Empire in their hearts and hands, and give ample instruction to Mission Boards as to the kind of persons that should be sent to this field, and of the best and wisest method of dealing with them so as to secure their greatest efficiency as workers at a minimum of expense. If our Mission Boards, and our ministry and laity who are interested, will secure copies of the proceedings of this body, they will be prepared to do work upon more approved principles, and be better qualified for a judicious criticism of Board and Mission methods of work.

The other event to which allusion has been made is of still greater importance to the spiritual life, both of the missionaries and the native Church. God has graciously poured out his Spirit and revived his work throughout the entire country. The results of this revival have been such as to call forth the highest gratitude of all who have given to, and prayed and wrought for, the Christianization of Japan. Many of the Churches have almost doubled their membership. The Christian life of the believers has been quickened, and has manifested this quickening in a greater consecration to Christian work, and a spirit of greater liberality. It has done much to eradicate from the hearts of native Christians the deep-seated prejudice against foreigners, which oftentimes made itself felt even against missionaries. Thus has the way for a more cordial confidence in, and coöperation with, missionaries, upon the part of the native Church, been opened by the Spirit of God. The native Christians of all denominations hold a Biennial Conference, composed of delegates representing the respective Churches in the land. The object of this meeting is to consider questions which relate to the life of the Church and to its successful progress. Meeting, as it did this year, in the wake of the Missionary Conference, and in the inception of the revival which has been spreading throughout the country, the Conference was converted by the Holy Spirit into a daily and hourly meeting of incessant prayer. At the same time, without preconcerted action, all the Churches in the various cities began daily prayer-meetings. The spontaneity of the movement was so manifest that none could question that the hand of God was directing it. It was but natural for these various streams of quickened religious life to flow together into one channel of Christian effort. The numerical results, so far as conversions are concerned, while they have been very great, are only one of the minor features of importance in this work. Accessions to the various Churches have generally been in proportion to the number of missionaries and the number of their membership. Our own little Church has shared with all others in the precious results. Its spiritual condition seems, therefore, to be much better than at any other time in its brief history.

Christ said to his disciples at one time, when he was looking upon a condition of things similar to that which now exists in Japan, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth more laborers into his harvest." From this it is to be inferred that it is God who ripens any people for the gospel. It follows, also, that when a nation without God has become ripe for the knowledge of him, it is the time in which laborers, to gather the harvest, should be sent to the field. A ripened harvest, therefore, is God's unmistakable call to his Church for more laborers, and more earnest prayer that he would send them. Whether, then, this great harvest of souls here in Japan shall soon be gathered or not, depends not upon the unpreparedness of this field, but upon the willingness or unwillingness of the Church.

Every Mission Board entering into the work in this country ought to have one good central station fully manned. This would require at least that there should be one to give his entire strength to the work of Church-organization, and, training the same to self-reliance, one for educational work, one for medical work, and one to devote himself to supplying a Christian literature. Reference is here made only to those who are supposed to have passed not less than three years exclusively in the study of the language. Four men, without full knowledge of the language, would find a thousand-fold more than they would, in such a case, be able to do, even in limiting this strength to only one department of the work. This makes no allowance for the possibility of these four ever breaking down in health or dying. To provide for possibilities of that kind, it would be necessary to have men on the field engaged in those preparatory studies essential to future usefulness. To maintain a force less than this is to doom a Mission to a slow and dragging work, and to throw out temptations which strongly lead a missionary to undertake too much, thus enfeebling the work, and laying the foundation for possible failures in health, that may become a source of great financial loss to the Church and an irreparable loss to the worker. In view of the fact that human health and lives become a prominent element in the missionary problem, the matter of properly equipping a Mission becomes one that requires much prayer and study. Only by some well-ordered system of reënforcements can the work be carried on successfully. If Divine Providence should open the way for occupying places in the interior, it would be impossible to occupy such openings without a reserve to call upon.

An erroneous conception seems to be entertained concerning the progress of Japan. Because she has appropriated such fruits of a Christian civilization as railroads, telegraphs, etc., she is, therefore, regarded as growing towards Christianity. By some this Empire is even now spoken of as one of the Christian nations. But there is a vast difference between steamboats and salvation. Railroads and redemption have not yet become synonyms in the true Christian vocabulary. The very meaning of the gospel is that men are not lifted from the low plane of naturalism to the exalted one of Divine Sonship through processes of civilization, or even intellectual enlargement, but only through the sanctifying power of Christ and him crucified. The various Western improvements introduced here have not damaged the moral character of the people. It is true, the old religions, so far as the educated masses are concerned, at least, are going out, but in their place is coming in a large amount of Materialism and various other forms of infidelity, and the latter state bids fair to become worse than the first. What is most imperatively needed is the immediate occupancy of the country with a missionary force adequate to meet the needs of this transitional state.

While it may seem to some that the Annual Report of the Japan Mission has become only an annual refrain of reënforcements, reënforcements, reënforcements, yet the truth is that there are no words that can adequately set forth the needs of the case. We are fully aware that it is not so much the wants of men, nor the wretchedness of a Christless people, but the will of the world's Redeemer, that is to make his people willing in the day of his power. But we do know, that when believers in Christ draw nearest to him, and feel, as well as theoretically believe, that Christ died for the world, and that in his cross adequate provision has been made for all men, then the quickened hearts of Christ's followers will be enkindled by the wants and woes and wretchedness of lost men. We know, furthermore, in drawing near to the crucified Lord we realize that we have come to love God only because he first loved us; and out of the same full experience we learn that he "who loveth God will love his brother also." To ask for reënforcements, therefore, is only another way of pleading that the Church should draw nearer to Christ—should seek a baptism anew of God's Spirit. We plead, therefore, that the Church should place herself in such a receptive attitude toward Christ as to receive of the fullness that dwells in him. Give us a thoroughly revived Church, and there will be no need to call for men and means. Many would then say, "Lord, here am I, send me," and free-will offerings would flow into God's treasury. Our plea becomes a prayer, "O Lord, revive thy work!"

In sending the so-much-needed additional missionaries, the Board should bear in mind that it will require not less than three years to be devoted exclusively to preparatory studies before any one can hope to make even a weak beginning of any kind of responsible work. Every year's delay is really, therefore, four years' delay. Rents and purchasable property are, also, constantly rising in value, so that it becomes a matter of economy to supply the demands of this field at as early a day as possible. It certainly is asking only for "crumbs" from the well-loaded table when the Japan Mission earnestly begs for three more ordained ministers. Even if only so small a number should be sent out, it would leave for the home-work 1,433 ministers, according to the last tabulated statistics. The Holy Ghost said to the early Church, "Separate unto me Paul and Barnabas" for the foreign work. Even with six ministers in the foreign work, it would be only one-two-hundred-and-fortieth part of our ordained forces. Can it be possible, in view of the needs of the world, that the Holy Ghost is calling upon the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to "separate unto him" for this great work even less than that small proportion?

Since our last report the Mission has been increased by the arrival of one person, supported by the Evansville branch of the General Assembly's Board. Her previous labors and position have been such that she needs no special introduction to the Church as a missionary. She began the work of English teaching almost immediately upon her arrival, and has given her time and strength mainly to the duties that pertain to that line of work. The other two ladies, sustained by the same Board, have been giving themselves almost exclusively to the acquirement of the language, and it is expected that in the course of another year they will begin to assume responsible work. They are already aiding in Sabbath-school and other departments of Mission-labor. The married ladies have also been as busy in the general work as possible under all the circumstances. One of them has maintained the weekly meeting for prayer and instruction for the women of the Church. This meeting has increased in interest and attendance throughout the entire year. It has been invited several times to the houses of various members, thus rendering a kind of double service. The other meeting, conducted by the other-named lady at one of the Church's Mission-places, has also increased in interest, and largely so in regular attendance. This meeting has for its object to impart religious instruction, and to teach the native woman to work to aid in maintaining the finances of the Church. During the past year they have, as the results of the proceeds of the sales of their work, both here and in America, purchased a "baby organ," paid part of the expenses and all the import duties upon an organ donated to the Church by Mr. J. H. Danley, of Lincoln, Ill., and given to the Church nearly fifty Japanese dollars for the erection of a building. The married ladies have also engaged in house-to-house visitation amongst the native women, and, assisted by two of the ladies of the Woman's Board, have engaged in the touring work in the interior.

According to the last Annual Report, it was stated to be the Mission's desire that the girls' school should be located in the southern part of the city of Osaka. It was thought that by such a policy the Japanese brethren would thus be led to feel their responsibility more for its success. The decision of its location being left to them, after duly canvassing the subject, they felt that the difficulties in the way of putting it in the city were greater than could be overcome at present. In accordance with this decision, therefore, one lot and a half, Nos. 19 and 22, located on the Foreign Concession, in this city, were bought. The purchase price was twenty-two hundred dollars ($2,200, Mexican). On this property are two small (plaster) foreign Japanese-built houses, one small bungalow, and an office. The two former were fitted up for the single ladies to live in, and the office reärranged temporarily for the accommodation of school-girls. The repairs, land-rent for one year, insurance, etc., have cost about $300, making in all about $2,500. The dwelling-houses, though not very substantial, are yet very neat ones, and may possibly be serviceable for several years. The bungalow is leased to another party until February 1, 1884, at which time the Mission will come into possession of it. It is a little house of four rooms, which can be used for school purposes when properly reconstructed. It is the present intention to begin the school on a limited scale some time during the month of January, 1884. It is expected that by next fall two of the missionaries of the Woman's Board will be able to give the main part of their strength to this work, and to open it more completely. The three girls, supported by various Sabbath-schools and societies, were brought from the Kioto Mission-school, where they had been receiving faithful instruction during the past two years, to Osaka. Since November they have been receiving instruction in English, music, and Biblical exegesis, from some of the single ladies of the Mission. They have all been received into Church-membership. They are rendering valuable aid in Christian work, and by the blessings of God upon the labors of the lady missionaries in the girls' school, give promise at present of developing into very useful laborers in Christ's vineyard at some time in the near future. Such are the temptations, however, to which they will be subjected as Christian women in this land, that they will need not only the most careful, prayerful, and patient watch-care of their Christian teachers, but also the sympathies and prayers of all God's people.

For the coming year appropriations will be needed to meet the land-tax, which is about one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, and to purchase an outfit of globes, maps, and other school appurtenances. The estimates for these and many other needs will be furnished by the Treasurer, and all details in regard to them by the English Corresponding Secretary of the Girls' School, Mrs. A. M. Drennan.

The course of study in the girls' school, as at present contemplated, will embrace about seven years, divided into a three-years' preparatory and a four-years' higher course. It is the desire to make it cover substantially the course pursued in the female seminaries in America. It is the wish to make this institution thoroughly worthy of the support and patronage of Japanese who have daughters to educate. This will require time and patient labor to accomplish. While this will be aimed at, yet by no means will it be forgotten that there may always be with us worthy ones of God's poor who should receive the benefits of a Christian education, and yet are unable from their circumstances to do so without judicious aid. The Mission seeks to provide for such cases in two ways: First, by assigning to a missionary, who may desire to educate one or more for specific ends, the guardianship of such a beneficiary or beneficiaries. Every missionary receiving such wards is expected to select them, superintend their education, and solicit aid for them from such parties in America as the missionary may deem best. The money contributed for this purpose is not technically regarded as Mission-funds, but is to be received and accounted for by the missionary directly to the persons or societies contributing the same. Every such guardian will observe the spirit of the principle which seeks to confer so great a benefit in such a way as to develop the self-reliance and self-respect of the pupil. This it will be sought to accomplish by supplying them with immediate or prospective work of such a nature as to be compensative for that which is received. The second way of treating beneficiaries is to have a Mission-fund for that end. Scholars receiving aid from this fund are expected to render an equivalent to the Mission for the money thus expended. In other words, such scholars will support themselves by laboring for the Mission in consideration of value received.

Owing to the fact that it requires so long a time for the study of the language and people before entering upon direct Mission-labor, the work to be undertaken by the ladies sustained by the Woman's Board has not yet been organized. Preparatory steps for its organization are now being made, and the outlook is encouraging. Nothing whatever has been undertaken by the Mission looking to the establishment of the so-much-needed training-school for boys and young men. All that can be done under the present circumstances is to confine our efforts to supplying theological instruction as best we can to any who are ready for it. To make such a school what it ought to be, after even a low ideal, would require reënforcements and necessary means. If the Church would send us a layman who is a good educator, to put his entire strength upon the work, and another minister, a faculty could be furnished for all present needs, and, besides, allow the ordained missionaries more time for giving theological instruction and attending to other essential work.

In the present condition of Japan, this work is second to none. The difficulties would be great enough even if every thing was supplied for beginning properly such an institution, but with nothing at hand the burden is too great to be undertaken. Upon the Church rests the entire responsibility for supplying all needed men and means for this purpose. In view of the open field before us; the wave of Western Materialism sweeping over this "Land of the Morning"; the duty we owe to a people whose old moral system is being undermined by Mission-work; the incentive upon us to put down the shameful whisper already current amongst some in this land, and detrimental to us, that our denomination approves of an ignorant ministry; the obligations we are under to Christ to "occupy" as he has given us ability as a Church—are considerations which conspire to make our responsibility for our share of Christian educational work in this land a very great one.

In order that an industrial and night-school, together with a Biblical Institute on a very limited scale, may be commenced soon, an early appropriation of about five hundred dollars is earnestly solicited. It must not, however, be inferred from this that there is any the less need of the $3,000 asked for last year with which to begin the work properly.

The general growth of the native Church still continues to be encouraging. There has been a notable increase in the spiritual life of many of the members. This revived condition has manifested itself in an increased consecration to the work of Christ in various directions.

While the Church has not yet taken any steps formally towards organizing itself after the Presbyterian polity, yet it seems to be gradually growing into it. This year they selected three men to serve for six months as elders. Their reëlection is made to depend upon the ability and fidelity with which they perform their duties. Being without a pastor, these elders have served as such bi-monthly in turn.

Three preaching-places have, as usual, been maintained, viz., the Church-place at Horiyal, and two Mission-points—one at Yotsu-bashi and the other at Uchi Hou Machi. The attendance at all these services has been greater than during any previous year. The out-station work has always been sustained as regularly as the pass-system in this country will permit. The province is traversed its entire length (one hundred and fifty miles) monthly, as near as can possibly be done.

Numerically, the results of the work have been larger than any previous year. Twenty have been received into membership by baptism and two by letter. Of these, ten have been baptized in the out-station. Our membership is scattered over a territory, therefore, of about three hundred miles, as follows: Osaka, a city of about 700,000 inhabitants, thirty-seven members; Wakayama (out-station), 75,000 inhabitants, one member; Hikata, a cluster of villages of 5,000 inhabitants, five members; Tanabe, 11,000 inhabitants, one member; Shingu, 8,000 inhabitants, three members; whole number in out-station, ten members; total in Osaka and out-station, forty-seven. Fifty-one have thus far been received into membership. Of this number, one has been expelled, one dismissed by letter to the English Episcopal Church, and two dismissed to one of the Baptist Churches. Of the number now in membership, forty-two are adults and five are children.

The money raised by the Church has been gathered from the denarii-boxes (one of which is placed in each preaching-place for weekly voluntary contributions), by subscription for regular Church-expenses, and the results of the proceeds of the sale of articles made by the woman's industrial class. The moneys raised are expended for the following purposes: Special Home Mission-work, Mission-work in coöperation with other Christians, such as renting theaters and public halls for preaching purposes, the current expenses of the Church, a sinking fund for the employment of a pastor, and the erection of a church-building. All the Christians in the city also unite in assessing each Church-member, according to age, a fixed sum, to be paid toward the funeral expenses of any Christian at death. Children are taxed thus one cent each, and those over fifty, six cents per capitum, payable at the death of any Christian of any denomination. In this coöperative way the expenses of a decent burial for the poor brother is provided for.

The money raised by the native Christians during the year is as follows:

	Jap.	Dol.
Horiyal denarii-box	12	05
Yotsu-bashi denarii-box	11	24
Uchi Hou Machi denarii-box	20	03
By direct subscription	55	00
For burial purposes	4	50
Woman's industrial class	90	00
General Mission-work	6	00
Special Mission-work	15	98
Total	214	80

The amount collected to each adult member averages five dollars and ten cents, while the average amount of Mission-money raised is a fraction over fifty cents per member.

In addition, it may be remarked that the native Church assumes all of its own expenses, and assists in the expenses of the other points in the city. In the interior, places for worship and preaching are secured by those living there who are interested in Christianity. In some of these points interior, the maintenance of native brethren, who conduct the Mission-work there, is provided for entirely by those resident there during their sojourn with them.

While it is gratifying to be able to make such a report concerning the native Church, we would be very careful to have it understood that there are some shadings that must be given to this bright side of our work. The dark side of the view, while it is sufficient to call for great patience and tact, and to lead to a feeling of the need of the most earnest prayers and coöperation of Christian brethren at home, is not of such a nature as to call for any over-anxiety as to the future. The authorities of the Empire have resolved upon a great increase in the standing army. In order to effect this, a great portion of the young men of the nation will become subject to a conscription. Several of the young men of our Church will be liable to this draft. These are the ones to whom the little Church must look for its future ministerial supply. To what extent this may affect the Church it is at present difficult to forecast. Other difficulties are those which are incident to the peculiarities of the people as a race, and as a nation isolated from the rest of the world for so many ages. Many of these peculiarities, however, will ultimately prove to be excellences if they can be properly guided. It is for the wisdom necessary to effect such a guidance that the Board and the Church are requested to pray that God would vouchsafe unto us as a Mission.

We cannot close this report without expressing our appreciation of the valuable coöperation that has been accorded to us by the American Tract Society and the American Bible Society. The Rev. Mr. Loomis, of the Bible Society, has rendered very valuable service in every way that he could in the work of Bible colportage. He has visited our field of labor, and sought wherever he could therein to open up the way for the sale and distribution of the Scriptures. The fruits of these labors have sometimes illustrated in an impressive way the power there is in God's word to open the eyes of the spiritually blind to those precious truths of the gospel which save.

The substantial remembrancers which have been received by the various members of the Mission from friends at home, both known and unknown to us, have strengthened in us the feeling that our work has a warm place in the hearts of many of God's "hidden ones." This fact is a source of inspiration to us as we pass out from the old year over the threshold of the new to face those labors and trials which lead us to cry out with the prophet, "Lord, who is sufficient for these things?"

INDIAN WORK.

Our missions among three of the civilized Indian tribes are increasing in interest and activity. The President of the Board visited each of the above-named tribes during last September and October. In the interior of the Choctaw Nation he met the Bethel Presbytery, composed of nine ministers, eight of whom are natives. Two other natives have since been ordained. The Rev. J. H. Dickerson and the Rev. Calvin Robinson, a very influential native, are missionaries to the Choctaws and Chickasaws. The proceedings of Presbytery were conducted in an orderly and business-like manner in the native tongue, but rendered into English by an interpreter, and so recorded. The Presbytery resolved to make no further attempt to establish a school on the basis of manual labor, considering it prudent to let the matter rest for the present.

The President of the Board also attended a camp-meeting among the Chickasaws, and was sensibly impressed with the fervent zeal and devotion of the native Christians.

A Presbytery has been recently organized in the Cherokee Nation, in the bounds of which three missionaries bear commissions from your Board—the Revs. N. J. Crawford, R. C. Parks, and David Hogan. This is one of the most progressive of the tribes, and the foundation for effective work by our denomination has been evidently well laid by our pioneer missionaries. Brother Crawford superintends the work in the Cherokee Nation. He estimates that for every dollar contributed by the Church in the States for Church-erection and Christian education the natives will supplement it with two dollars. This is certainly a gratifying view of the liberality of that people, and an evidence of their desire to coöperate with our denomination in the upbuilding of the Redeemer's kingdom. "Could they ask less of those who, for seven years, have declared a desire to build up with them?" inquires the superintendent; and then he replies, "Surely but one answer can be given."

Brother Dickerson supervises the work among the Choctaws and Chickasaws, and is acquiring a knowledge of the Indian language while prosecuting his mission.

CITY MISSIONS.

Four additional Mission-stations have been adopted by the Board during the year, viz.: Birmingham, Ala.; Fort Smith, Ark.; Emporia, Ks.; and Decatur, Ill.

The Mission at Birmingham owns a neat frame church-building and a manse upon a valuable lot centrally located. The missionary entered upon his duties the first of January in the current year.

A financial agent is at work in the interest of Decatur Mission.

Fort Smith and Emporia Missions both possess some property-interest, and it is the desire of the Board to appoint a missionary, or agent, to each of them as soon as practicable.

Kansas City Mission has become self-supporting. The large and handsome edifice was completed and dedicated, free from debt, in October last. The funds for the support of the Mission and for the Church-erection have been supplied chiefly by Lexington Presbytery.

Hanford, Cal.—Tulare Presbytery, in which this Church is located, having, through a committee, requested the Board of Missions to pay the pastor's salary for one year, while the Church could pay off the debt upon the property, the Board cordially complied with the request, and continued the support twenty-one months, when payment of the stipend was discontinued.

Knoxville, Tenn.—An elegant building in process of erection; an agent in the field.

Logansport, Ind.—Gradually advancing to a condition of self-support.

Louisville, Ky.—Valuable lot purchased; an agent at work securing building-funds.

Meridian, Miss.—Good property; neat frame building, unencumbered; membership small, but resolute, and awaiting the appointment of a suitable missionary.

Pueblo, Col.—Valuable property; brick building, with no debt. The upbuilding of a congregation has been slow. There are peculiar difficulties attending our work in Colorado, but piety and push will be rewarded with success. In place of the missionary lately resigned, another will soon be appointed.

San Antonio, Texas.—This Mission owns desirable property unembarrassed. The missionary now devotes his entire time to the spiritual training of the people.

Sedalia, Mo.—A considerable portion of the funds needed for the erection of a new building on the eligible lot donated by a generous brother has been collected. The old building has been sold, but the congregation retains the right to continue services therein until the new edifice is ready for occupancy.

St. Joseph, Mo.—Mainly through the liberality of the people in Platte Presbytery, the attractive brick church was finished and dedicated in August last, and commendable progress has been made in gathering a congregation. The missionary first appointed having resigned, another has been selected for the work.

Connellsville, Pa.—The way now seems open for more active work in this city. The Board, in coöperation with the Local Committee on Missions, will proceed at once to devise ways and means for establishing a Church on a firm basis.

St. Louis, Mo.—The first German Mission has recently enjoyed a precious revival season, with seventeen accessions. Although the missionary receives no financial support from the Board, regular services are conducted during each year. This small but faithful band of German Cumberland Presbyterians should ever be cherished and encouraged by the denomination.

The second German Mission has ceased to exist. The property was sold and debt discharged; no balance.

In the foregoing review of our Foreign and Home Missions, words of commendation regarding the missionaries, although unquestionably deserved, have not been employed. Devoted, self-sacrificing, Christian workers need not the praise of men—"by their fruits ye shall know them." Information with regard to name and address of each, in connection with respective fields of labor, may be obtained by consulting the Missionary Record, a list being published in each number.

With very few exceptions, the progress in our City Missions has been encouraging. Permanency of the work and increasing power in giving testimony not only in congregations which have become self-supporting, but in those yet needing the fostering care of the Board, seem assured, and the day is already at hand when our denomination is experiencing the strengthening influence of more Churches established in the centers of commercial activity and religious power.

EVIDENCES OF PROGRESS AND CAUSES THEREOF.

1. The number of souls awakened and converted through spiritual power attending the testimony of our missionaries in Japan, the Indian Territory, and City Missions, is proof that the Divine blessing is bestowed upon the efforts of our Church to advance the Redeemer's kingdom, and notably so in Japan, where, though the laborers are few, the harvest has been great.

2. The increased number of pastors and congregations coöperating with your Board in the scriptural plan of systematic offerings for the Lord's work. While the proportion of contributing congregations is yet too small, your Board can, nevertheless, rely more confidently upon the support of the Church in its measures for the spread of the gospel.

3. The valuable service now rendered by some of the Presbyterial Mission Secretaries is developing the Mission-spirit in the Presbyteries.

4. Woman's work as an auxiliary in educating the Church. The Woman's Board during its brief history has brought to light much long-hidden talent of the women of the denomination, and inspired a zeal for the extension of Christ's kingdom hitherto unknown.

5. Increased income for strictly missionary purposes, enlargement of the work, urgent calls for more workers in each department of Mission endeavor.

DEMANDS OF THE WORK.

1. Two missionaries (who should be married men) and two single ladies for the work in Japan. It is desirable that one of the male missionaries should be a physician with excellent medical qualifications and Christian culture. He may not necessarily be an ordained preacher, but must be thoroughly devoted to Mission-work. These calls, so often repeated, may well excite serious thought, earnest inquiry, and the spirit of consecration throughout the Church. There has not been a time in the past two years when the Board would not have commissioned suitable applicants for the Foreign field, not because of a surplus of funds in the treasury, but in strong faith that, according to the demand, would means be given. There may have been preparation of heart needed both on the part of the Church and subjects. If so, then let us not be slow in becoming ready to measure up to the demands of the trust committed to us. To meet a felt-want in medical and educational work, including theological instruction—as set forth in reports from the Mission—other reënforcements are indispensable.

2. Christian workers for the Indian Territory and other vast fields in the West. In this connection, special attention is drawn to the Report of the Permanent Committee of the Pacific Synod, submitted as a part of this annual statement. The Board made dilligent effort to aid the cause in California the last year. Two brethren were appointed to labor among the Churches in Pacific Synod, but owing to personal reasons, after accepting the appointment, they were unable to go. It is the purpose to put a missionary in that field at an early day, if practicable. The claims of the Oregon and the Pacific Synod are fully recognized, and all possible assistance will be rendered.

3. More of the Lord's money in the Board's treasury for the support of missionaries.

4. The Church-erection Fund called for last year (of which only a small portion has yet been contributed) to establish City Missions, without waiting the slow and difficult process of gathering building-funds from adjacent congregations and from individuals by special effort.

MISSIONARY RECORD.

One of the most valuable helps in the dissemination of missionary intelligence and the development of a practical Mission-spirit in the Church is the Missionary Record. It is worthy of the Board which publishes it, and of the patronage of Cumberland Presbyterians, and yet it is not circulated as it should be. On the first day of May there were less than twenty-five hundred patrons. Upon pastors rests principally the responsibility for extending the circle of its readers. If it had a circulation of ten thousand, its influence on the Church-membership would, in a single year, probably, double the receipts of the Board, and enable it to do twice its present work.

J. L. SECOR,
Corresponding Secretary Board of Missions.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS OF PACIFIC SYNOD.

To the Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo.:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Since our last Annual Report, the following changes have occurred in the membership and official roll of Pacific Synod's Permanent Committee of Missions, viz.: The Rev. E. G. McLean, of Merced, Cal., has been elected to membership, vice the Rev. J. H. Braly, resigned; Carter Landram, Merced, vice Z. M. Parvin, removed from the State; F. P. Gray, San Jose, vice the Rev. J. N. Crawford, removed from the State. The committee at present is as follows: The Rev. D. E. Bushnell, Chairman, San Jose, Cal.; Prof. C. W. Childs, Treasurer, San Jose; F. P. Gray, Secretary, San Jose; the Rev. E. G. McLean and Carter Landram, Merced; S. C. Wolfskill, Winters, Cal.; and Joseph Cunningham, Saratoga, Cal.

The committee have held frequent meetings during the year, but few of which, owing to distance of several members from the place of meeting, were attended by more than a quorum. The committee, however, have constituted so as to secure a quorum (the votes of four out of seven members) at San Jose, and have done what seemed necessary and practicable for the extension of our beloved Church in California. This work, however, has been limited to a few comparatively unimportant details, for lack of resources and facilities for its more effective prosecution.

Of the many apparently important openings for aggressive work to which our attention has been called during the past year, only two seemed to us to be within the reach of our committee, though others were, on some accounts, much more important. During the autumn of 1883 a conditional grant of $20 per month was made out of funds in hand, and to be raised, for an indefinite time for the establishment of a Church in the growing town of Fresno. This appropriation was never claimed by those having the Fresno matter in hand; hence, no funds have been paid for it. We understand that the enterprise has been abandoned by the Tulare Presbytery, in whose bounds it was located, and by whose vote the enterprise was proposed. Instead of Fresno, where we had no property and have had only the skeleton of an organization, our aid has been invoked more recently by the said Tulare Presbytery for the resuscitation and maintenance of the Church in Visalia, which had been regularly organized previously and supplied with the means of grace—the Rev. J. W. Sneed, a licentiate, having been appointed to that field by the Tulare Presbytery. The Church there owns a good, eligible building-lot, and has in hand several hundred dollars of building-funds. In view of these circumstances, the membership being quite small, the committee have concluded to pay twenty-five dollars per month toward the support of the missionary, provided the Church and the community will contribute the balance necessary for a reasonable support. If the offer be accepted, the payments are to begin with the month of May, and continue as long as needed and the Church at large will furnish us the funds for the work.

The committee, realizing the peril of our San Jose Church in the autumn of 1883, and appreciating the importance of this Church in one of the few great centers of the Pacific coast, deemed it appropriate and urgently necessary to aid this Church to support the stated means of grace until it should find itself able to dispense with this help. They accordingly appropriated the sum of twenty dollars per month for one year, or less, as the necessity may demand. This appropriation began with the month of November, 1883, and the payments have been regularly made to date.

At our last meeting, held April 21, 1884, the committee decided to renew, and they do now hereby renew, their urgent appeal to the Board of Missions for an appropriation, subject to their order, sufficient to pay the salary of a missionary pastor in Oakland, Cal., and the salary, at least in part, of a general missionary for the whole Synod. Or, if the Board prefer, we do also greatly prefer that they will, as soon as practicable, establish a Church in the city of Oakland, and also appoint a general missionary for the Synod; and in both of these enterprises, or in any other work which they may undertake in this country, we pledge our cheerful coöperation. But we respectfully suggest that it will be unwise to delay the two enterprises longer. California is entering upon one of the most prosperous years of her whole history, and our people are ready to move forward all along the line if sufficient confidence can be established of the permanence and probable success of aggressive measures. As a proof of this, we refer with just pride and thankfulness to the Treasurer's abstract herewith transmitted. We beg leave to suggest in regard to the "Anniversary Collections," that the quarter for Home Missions embraced a period of the most extraordinary rain-fall ever experienced in California, rendering it impracticable for the whole period in not a few of the rural Churches for the congregations to assemble for worship. Some of these Churches will yet send up their offerings. If you will compare the aggregate of our year's offerings to the cause of Home Missions with the aggregate number of communicants in our Churches, you will see that, though laboring under extraordinary disadvantages, we have not been unwilling to "help ourselves." It may be in place, and not invidious in this connection, to add that the two Churches making the largest offering for this cause have done so under very interesting conditions. The Arroyo Grande Church, with less than fifty members, had just dedicated, free of debt, a neat and beautiful house of worship, but nobly took its place at the head of the list. The San Jose Church, with a much larger membership, was not yet fully recovered from a well-organized attempt to carry her entirely out of our communion. We mention these matters especially as evincing the devotion of our people to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and with the hope that such exhibitions of fidelity will not be unappreciated by yourselves nor the Church at large.

Humbly praying that the great Head of the Church will direct and prosper you greatly in all things pertaining to his kingdom, we are, beloved fathers and brethren, fraternally yours,

D. E. BUSHNELL, Chairman.

REPORT OF DELEGATE TO WOMAN'S BOARD.

To the Moderator and Members of the Fifty-fourth General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, McKeesport, Pa., May, 1884:

Having been appointed by the General Assembly of last year to bear the Christian salutations of the body to the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, now in session at this place, I have complied therewith, and rejoice to report that the evidences of God's presence in their services and labors are such as to assure you of continued success in this department of Christian endeavor. Of their work and its results, their own report will doubtless fully inform you.

It has been a constant joy to witness the skill with which they transact their business, the wise and earnest methods they employ in enlisting the women and children throughout the Church in the work of sending the gospel to the benighted, and the deep spirit of consecration to the Lord which they breathe in all their labors and services.

Permit me hereby to recommend that if you appoint a day of special prayer for Missions, that these devoted Christian women and the Lord's cause in their hands have special mention therewith.

My expenses have been twelve dollars and forty cents, which you will please order your Treasurer to honor. J. B. MITCHELL.

Salem, Ill., May 13, 1884.

[The foregoing was, after reading, referred to the Committee on Missions. That committee failed to make any reference to it; nor was the paper returned to the Stated Clerk until several weeks after the adjournment of the General Assembly. It is published here for information.—T. C. B., S. C.]

II.—PUBLICATION.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN:—It has again become the duty of your Board of Publication to inform you as fully as may be of the condition of your publishing work, and what has been done in that department during the past year. For this purpose we need do nothing more than transmit to you the Report of the Board's General Agent, Mr. T. M. Hurst, which is herewith presented. Being the result, to a large extent, of frequent interchange of views between him and ourselves, we adopt its statements and concur in its recommendations, and to this extent make it our report to you.

It will be seen that the past year's work has been crowned with marked success, for which we should all feel grateful. Our line of policy for the next year would seem to be plainly indicated. It is:

1. To give prominence to the work of producing some new, first-class books on live topics, and reviving our book department generally.

2. To continue to improve our periodicals as far as practicable, and to further extend their circulation.

3. To employ the full power of the weekly paper in helping to build up the other enterprises of the Church.

4. To increase our facilities for work in proportion to the demands of the work to be done.

In truth, we realize that our great work has just begun. What we have done is but a tithe of what can be done. With the same coöperation which has been so freely and faithfully extended by the Church to this work for the past two years, we can find no room for doubt that the results of another year will run far ahead of this.

With gratitude to God for his favors in the past, and humble trust in his guidance for the future, we are your brethren,

JNO. M. GAUT, President;
R. M. TINNON, Secretary;
P. H. MANLOVE,
W. F. NISBET,
E. WATERHOUSE, Sr.,
THOS. W. CAMPBELL,
I. T. RHEA.

REPORT OF THE AGENT.

To the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

GENTLEMEN:—As your Agent, I submit the following report, showing the condition of our business at the close of our fiscal year ending April 30, 1884:

This report is simply a recital of facts, showing to what degree the Lord has blessed our efforts during the year—facts that bring with them a strong appeal to our gratitude to the Lord for his blessings. Our last report was the history of a successful appeal to the liberality of our people, which lifted this enterprise from debt and placed it on a safe financial basis.

During the years of our struggle for an existence, many of our good men have doubted the propriety of continuing this work, believing that it could never be made self-sustaining. Last year our people decided to put it on a sound basis, and test the matter. The test has been made, and this report embodies its results.

A TEST YEAR.

By an order of the last General Assembly, the Cumberland Presbyterian was enlarged, additional editorial force was employed, and two new printing-presses, with type and other printing-office fixtures, were bought at an aggregate expense of $10,454.97; and as we turned from the mountain of debt just behind to this mountain just ahead, we must now confess that we faltered at its proportions. But it was there, and but two things were possible: to stop or go ahead. We went ahead, and the mountain was crossed without any serious embarrassment. The presses were bought and paid for; the type were bought and paid for; the extra expense of enlarging the paper was paid; all salaries were paid; all rents, insurance, and other expenses were paid; in short, we have paid all of our debts as they have matured, and now come with only which is shown by our balance-sheet to be $4,668.67, not a dollar of which (except $300) is more than twenty days old, and all of which will be paid promptly as it matures. As an offset against this, we have due us in good accounts and notes, $6,075.51; and besides, we have in the house paper and ink, such as is used in our business, worth $2,792.73. The accounts and notes due us are all fresh, and not exceeding ten per cent. of them will likely remain unpaid ninety days.

OUR PROFITS.

By reference to our balance-sheet submitted herewith, you will see that our net profits on the year's work aggregate $7,901.00, distributed as follows:

Debits.

To 10 per cent. reduction from last year's inventory of machinery for wear and tear	$ 934 39

To Advertising	124 00
To Fuel Account	427 52
To Insurance	262 50
To Press-room, salaries, postage, mailing department, and incidental expenses	18,396 59

By Gross Profits on Job-work	7,113 46

Total	$29,713 56
Less Debits	21,812 56
Net Profits	$ 7,901 00

OUR NET CAPITAL.

This amount has been added to our net capital as reported last year, and gives us at this date $59,293.45 net capital—an increase of $19,826.68 during the past two years.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN.

During the year we have made a vigorous effort to extend the circulation of the Cumberland Presbyterian to 15,000, but have only succeeded in reaching 12,200. This we feel is a good work for our Church, and one that may be taken as an indication of the growing interest in all Church-work among the members of our denomination. The time is evidently not far distant when we may reasonably expect the circulation to go even beyond the 15,000. It might be well, in this connection, to consider the propriety of increasing the valuation of this publication in proportion to the increase of its circulation.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

During the year the Cumberland Presbyterian has been highly approved, except in its advertising department. This has been the source of some complaint. The pressure of the manifold duties of my position have caused me to enter into a few inconsiderate contracts for the insertion of advertisements which proved to be objectionable in their character. Embarrassed by these contracts, I have not been able to get rid of these advertisements, and will not be able to do so immediately, but will see to it that similar mistakes shall not occur in the future if increased vigilance can prevent it.

OUR SABBATH-SCHOOL PAPERS.

During the year the circulation of all our Sabbath-school papers has been increased very materially, and wherever they have been used they have given general satisfaction.

In view of the growing interest in this department of our work, and the further fact that the demands of our Sabbath-schools may require some changes in our Sabbath-school helps, I would respectfully suggest that you ask the General Assembly to give an expression in this connection, with a view to ascertaining the wants of our schools.

OUR MAILING DEPARTMENT.

Owing to our limited resources, we have in the past been unable to provide such skilled labor in the mailing department as we desired; but beginning with the new year, we have arranged it more systematically, and expect in the future to give it all the attention it deserves. We never expect to be able to prevent all mistakes, but we do expect to prevent a very large per cent. of them, and to keep our work in such a shape that we can correct with accuracy and promptness any that may be brought to our attention.

BOOKS.

During the year we have printed the following new books: "Bible Songs" (words only); "Revised Confession" (two editions); Hubbert's "Sermon;" "A Plea for an Educated Ministry;" and have reprinted the following: "The Solway Family;" "Ned and Sidney;" "Psalms and Hymns;" "Nineteen Questions Answered;" "Child's Question Book," Nos. 1 and 2, two editions each; "Mrs. McDavitt's Catechism;" two editions of "Children's Hosannas;" two editions of "Session Book;" tract, "A Plea for Sabbath-schools;" and a "Sunday-school Register."

We have evidently reached a period in our existence when we may give more attention to the printing and distribution of books in harmony with the teachings of our Church and suited to the wants of our people, but steps looking to this end should be taken with caution. No book should be printed simply to gratify the author, but the good of the Church and the cause of Christ should be the standard. In this connection, allow me again to suggest the propriety of appointing a Book Committee.

Under our present arrangements, manuscripts sent for examination or publication necessarily find a resting-place in the hands of your Agent, as there is no one to whom such can be referred, and he is not authorized to employ a committee to report on the merits of a work. For the present, it might be well enough to ask the editors of the Cumberland Presbyterian, in connection with the editors of the Sabbath-school papers, to serve in this capacity.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

During the year complaints have been made about the style in which the new Confession was issued. Our last General Assembly left this work with instructions to have the proof read by the Stated Clerk and at least two members of the Committee on Revision. We printed the matter as furnished. Inasmuch as this is a matter of very great importance to the interests of our denomination, I would suggest that you ask the General Assembly to designate just what shall be printed and just who shall read the proof, leaving the style of printing entirely to the printer.

OUR FUTURE.

While we have cause to be thankful for the success of this work during the past year, we cannot afford to lose sight of the fact that the future is before us, and will come teeming with demands and responsibilities that must be met. To meet them well we must expect and prepare for them. We can pause but for a moment to enjoy past success. We should begin now to devise means and lay plans for a grander and a nobler work. During the coming year we may not only enlarge the circulation of our present publications, but with the proper effort we may succeed in printing and distributing books and tracts that may go as messengers carrying the truth as it is in Christ Jesus into many homes and into many hearts. Relying upon God's blessings, we may go forward in confident expectation of larger results of good to the Church than ever before.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, please allow me, through your body, to return my most sincere thanks to the entire denomination for the charity with which my errors and short-comings have been overlooked, and for the energy and heartiness with which they have ever extended a helping-hand in this work.

III.—MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

To the General Assembly, in session at McKeesport, Pennsylvania, May, 1884:

The Board of Ministerial Relief herewith submit their Third Annual Report.

1. While the progress the Church is making in this department of beneficence is not rapid, yet it has evidently secured a permanent abiding-place in the affections of a large portion of the people, and we hope its importance will in time be duly recognized by all. Many new friends have come to its support during the past year, and we are confident its course will be steadily forward. As a Board, we gladly give it our time and thought, rejoicing in the privilege of being the dispensers of the gifts of the Church to such deserving ones as compose the list of beneficiaries herewith reported.

2. Satisfied the friends of this cause will never become less in number, our only regret is that the great majority of the Church are so slow to manifest their sympathy by contributions of money. We are sure all must wish it well, but this is not enough. Will the General Assembly give the full weight of its influence in arousing ministers and congregations to a sense of their duty by such action as it may deem best? We suggest that the action of a former General Assembly, designating the month of December as the time for contributions, be renewed; and, further, that the Sabbath immediately preceding Christmas is the most appropriate day for the people to make their offerings in behalf of the needy and distressed who have labored so faithfully in the cause of our Redeemer.

3. During the year just closed the number of remittances has been one hundred and fourteen, being more than double that of the previous year. These have come from ninety-three congregations, two Sabbath-schools, seventeen individuals, and two Presbyterial meetings, representing forty-seven Presbyteries and twenty-two Synods. This result is gratifying indeed. May the ratio of increase continue till the name of every congregation in the Church shall appear on the records of the Board. We gladly express our gratitude to the individual contributors whose liberality has assisted materially in meeting the wants of those in need.

4. Aid has been furnished during the year to eight disabled ministers, and to the families of eight deceased ministers, the list representing more than forty persons whose hearts and homes have been made glad by this kindly attention from the Church they love. Some of those have been very needy, all of them deserving what they have received, and much more if it could have been given.

Among those to whom appropriations have been made appears the honored name of the Rev. H. A. Hunter, D.D., who passed to his reward "full of years" that abounded in good works. His family are able to care for themselves, but we believe it to be the duty of the Church to relieve them of the expenses incurred by his sickness and burial. Unless the General Assembly directs otherwise, the Board will continue appropriations to his executor, as its funds will allow, till such expenses are fully met. We deem this course but just in view of his eminent services through so many years of earnest toil. A reasonable amount has been retained in the treasury, partially for this purpose, and also to meet such demands as may suddenly arise.

5. We anticipate an early settlement with the executor of the estate of Mrs. Shaw, of Danville, Ill., from which the Board will probably receive about $2,500. This will be invested as a nucleus for what we hope will become a large permanent fund, the interest to be used in the relief of the beneficiaries of the Board. This is a worthy channel through which the more favored ones may appropriate a part of their means for doing good that will continue when they are gone.

6. We ask the General Assembly to urge upon all Presbyteries to conduct their relief work through this Board. The reasons for this are manifest. And there will be no difficulty for any Presbytery to make satisfactory arrangements to this end.

7. We herewith append, as part of this report, the annual statement of the Treasurer of the Board.

Respectfully submitted.

IV.—EDUCATION.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Members of the General Assembly, in session at McKeesport, Pa.:

In presenting to you the Report of the Board of Education for 1883–4, we would respectfully call attention to the following items:

At a meeting held in the office of John Frizzell, Esq., in Nashville, about the 1st of April, 1884, the following officers were selected for the coming year: President, the Rev. J. P. Sprowls, Nashville, Tenn.; Secretary, the Rev. J. W. Fitzgerald, Lebanon, Tenn.; Treasurer, the Rev. J. C. Provine, Nashville, Tenn.

The Secretary was instructed to correspond with the different colleges and universities of the Church, and make a brief report of the correspondence to the next General Assembly. This correspondence was to elicit information for the use of the General Assembly, and form a basis, in part, for future work by the Board of Education. We give, in brief, the result of that correspondence, viz.:

Cumberland University.—The catalogue for the year ending June, 1884, will show about fifty students in attendance preparing for the ministry.

Tuition given during the year	$2,000
Board given during the year	3,120
Total	$5,120

Lincoln University—Thirteen candidates for the ministry in attendance during the year. They are charged no tuition. They receive board at two dollars and seventy-five cents per week. They are formed into a class, and heard once a week in regard to some phase of their life-work. This is done for a double purpose—to give them practical knowledge, and also to show them the necessity of taking a course in a theological seminary.

Trinity University.—Twenty-nine candidates preparing for the ministry. Tuition, if collected in full, would amount to about $1,300. In other items, such as boarding, clothing, books, etc., they are receiving help, but it is difficult to say what amount in figures. Perhaps, by the local school community, $400; by their Presbyteries, Churches, and friends, $600. They are receiving help in the way of two lectures per week—one in theology and one in homiletics. This school is also providing the Watkins Divinity Hall, so as to be able to board them cheaply and well, and has already a special endowment of $8,000, of which $5,000 is already productive. The interest of this money is to be used in aiding them in boarding, clothing, and books. They hope to do very much more in this direction in the future.

Bethel College.—Eight probationers were in attendance during the year; charged no tuition. Some of the young men are receiving assistance from the citizens of the town in the way of board; others are being helped by their respective Presbyteries. The amount is not known.

Stewartsville College.—No candidates for the ministry in attendance at this institution of learning.

Waynesburg College.—1. The people of Waynesburg do not aid any of the candidates or licentiates in attendance at that institution by free boarding. 2. They have had in the institution during the year ten young men preparing for the ministry. 3. Tuition free.

The Rev. S. L. Russell, of Alabama, is aiding three young men in their preparation for the ministry. We regret exceedingly that his letter is not before us, so that we might be able to present to you other items of interest suggested by him.

We also submit the Report of the Treasurer of the Board:

Cumberland Presbytery—by the Rev. Z. H. C. Mock.

Casey Fork Congregation	$ 9 05
Marrowbone Congregation	5 05	$14 10

Jacksonville Congregation	$ 8 00
Larissa Congregation	5 00	$13 00
Total		$77 41

Respectfully submitted. J. C. PROVINE, Treasurer.

We hope this is the beginning of a great and useful work. The Church needs to systematize her effort in this direction. Let institutions of learning and Presbyteries report directly to this Board the amount of assistance given each young man preparing for the ministry. And during the year just before us every congregation is urged to lift one collection for this work, and forward the same to the Rev. J. C. Provine, Nashville, Tenn.

All correspondence should be directed to the Rev. J. W. Fitzgerald, Lebanon, Tenn.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF CUMBERLAND UNIVERSITY.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, sitting at McKeesport, Pa.:

The Trustees of Cumberland University submit to your reverend body the following report for the collegiate year ending June 5, 1884:

The year just closing has been one of such prosperity as greatly to encourage the Board. The increase in the attendance of young men upon the several departments is about twenty per cent. above that of last year; and particularly is the improvement noticeable and significant in the Theological School. The Theological Seminary is almost as certainly an indicator of the sentiment of the Church on the subject of an educated ministry as is mercury of the temperature of the atmosphere. In the past we have had the fluid below the freezing-point, but the Board have the satisfaction of saying it has now passed the temperate line, and the tendency is still upward.

Upon a conference and comparison of views, no member of the Board remembers any period in the history of the University when, all things considered, its future looked brighter; and to produce this encouraging outlook many things have contributed. We mention but three, to-wit:

1. The Cumberland Presbyterian Church is growing in its power and in its work, and is bringing a rapidly-increasing number of young men within the circumference of its influence; and as the Church grows, so must and will Cumberland University. The cause of Missions is no more closely allied to the Church than is the University; and as in that, so in this, the prosperity of the one indicates the prosperity of the other. The gospel preached at home and abroad by educated men to educated people is the voice of the entire Christian world; and in this great work it is something for which God should be praised, and every Cumberland Presbyterian made happy, that our Church is making itself heard and felt in the world.

2. The alumni, who, aside from the consideration of Church relations, are contributing to the prosperity of the University, furnish the second reason for our hopeful future. They are sending their sons to Lebanon to be educated, and this influence is being extended to their neighbors' sons, and thus the University is beginning to reap the fruits of labor performed a quarter of a century and more ago. This influence would have been felt at an earlier day but for the reason that many real friends feared a successful resuscitation of the University after the war was impracticable. This doubt, however, having been entirely removed, and the institution resting upon a more permanent basis than ever before in its history, we find the alumni more ready and willing to send their sons, and the friends of the University generally more inclined to encourage and give substantial aid. In other words, the Church, the alumni, and friends, are now manifesting a brave spirit in helping the University on to the accomplishment of its great work. When, by the combined effect of these three influences, the University shall have received its first one hundred thousand dollars of cash endowment, then, almost without asking, either one of the three will be willing and ready to duplicate it. This is the history of all similar institutions in this country possessing real merit, and so it will be of ours.

3. But neither the Church, nor the alumni, nor our friends, would be elements of strength, or rather their encouraging support would be withdrawn from the University, if its work was not well and thoroughly done in the class-room. The efficiency, the zeal, and unselfish devotion of the Faculty of Cumberland University are a continuing source of congratulation to the Board, and should be to the Church. The energy of such men cannot fail to bear fruit, and it is in a large measure by reason of their faithful labors that the Board is able to see such encouragement in the future. And yet, omitting one only, there is not a member of the Theological or Academic Faculty that is receiving as much as is paid the teacher of a district public school in the State of Tennessee. These educated, capable gentlemen are all professed Christians, members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. They all assist in the education of our candidates for the ministry (for it must be known that our candidates can be found in all departments of the University, beginning with the preparatory and ending with the theological), they are educating the sons of the Church, they are working for the Church, and by their unselfish labors upholding and pushing forward one of its greatest enterprises — doing all this, and upon one-third, or at most one-half, the average pay for such service. This is not the complaint of the Faculty, for they are non-complaining, but it is the protest of the Board of Trustees, who are unable to do more for them, and who now appeal, through your reverend body, to the whole Church and all friends, for the endowment of Cumberland University.

ENDOWMENT AND BUILDINGS.

Recent efforts made through the press and otherwise to secure the Beard Endowment, and the action of your reverend body at Nashville, Tenn., in turning over to the Board the Finley Fund, and the accruing interest on the Doherty Fund, make it proper for the Board to render somewhat in detail a report of the financial condition of the University.

Since the last report, the Board has received from the Trustees of the Church the sum of $16,239.16 as a payment of the Finley Fund above referred to. There is a balance of this fund, as we are informed, of some $700 or $800 still remaining in the hands of the Trustees of the Church, and which the Board is yet to receive. Of the $16,239.16 paid to the Board by the courts of Kentucky, through which it was recovered by the Trustees of the Church, $15,000 was declared to be principal, and which, by the terms of the trust, is to be kept intact. The balance of the fund is accrued interest, and, as far as has been received, has been applied on theological salary. The $15,000 principal has been invested by the Board in notes secured by mortgages on real estate having a market value of not less than $25,000 and an annual rental of not less than $2,000. This investment bears six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and we consider it absolutely safe, as the fund is loaned to five different persons, who own property amounting in the aggregate to not less than $100,000.

THEOLOGICAL ENDOWMENT.

The Board has now invested as an interest-bearing endowment belonging to the Theological Department (the interest upon which goes exclusively to the salaries of theological professors) the sum of $40,000. This includes the above-mentioned Finley Fund, and also the Doherty Fund, the corpus of which is still in the hands of the Trustees of the Church, this Board receiving from them only the accruing interest thereon. It also includes what has been paid on the subscription to the Beard Endowment.

The Board feels that it is a matter of paramount importance that this fund should be immediately increased to $60,000. That amount would enable the Board to pay a living salary to three professors. Sixty thousand dollars is not all the Theological School should have. Its endowment should not be less than $100,000; but if the Board had the $60,000 in hand and well invested, the Church could await the accretions which time would certainly bring.

ACADEMIC ENDOWMENT.

The Board has invested an interest-bearing endowment belonging to the Academic School amounting to $25,000. This fund should be at least doubled. With $50,000 as endowment for this department, the Board could so supplement the tuition fees as to substantially relieve the embarrassment of the Faculty. But we must not, in this case either, be understood as saying $50,000 is all this department needs. Twice that sum would only be twice the better, and the day is not far distant when the Church shall say $100,000 for this department of Cumberland University is not half enough.

The entire cash endowment for all departments, as thus appears, is $65,000. If we could all be of one accord for a little while, how easy it would be to make this $100,000, or any sum which the needs of the University or the Church could demand! Why not agree that the work shall be done, and then do it?

BUILDINGS.

The buildings belonging to the University—four in number—are well located, commodious, and ample for all present wants, and have an actual value of not less than $40,000 to $60,000. The library and apparatus are reasonably worth $10,000—indeed, the theological library alone is worth that amount. These estimates, which are not exaggerated, make the aggregate value of property, including endowment now controlled by the Board and belonging to Cumberland University, between $115,000 and $135,000.

No other enterprise of the Church has this amount of money invested in it; it may be true that no two together have. The Church cannot afford to stand by and witness its struggle longer. It has had a long and a fierce one, but through it all it could always claim the Church as its friend, and the Board now look to the Church to end the struggle by providing for it ample endowment.

The rule of the Board is to permit no part of the endowment to lie idle, but investments are made as soon as donations are received. Current contributions, which from time to time are being received by the Treasurer of the Board, are promptly reported by him, and as promptly invested in undoubted securities, and so far in such as bear interest at not less than six per cent. per annum (semi-annual payments), which is the legal rate in Tennessee. The principal of every dollar of money sent to the Board as endowment is sacredly preserved, and not allowed to be trenched upon for any purpose whatever.

The health and deportment of the schools have been, without interruption, good. Not a single case of serious illness has occurred, and not a case needing discipline has been brought to the attention of the Board or Faculty.

As no changes have been effected in the membership of the Board or Faculty, there is nothing to be reported under this head.

This report is transmitted by Ruling Elder E. E. Beard, who is a delegate to your reverend body from Lebanon Presbytery. He is also Treasurer of the Board, and he will take pleasure in answering all questions and in giving any further information that may be desired touching the condition and work of the University.

Respectfully submitted.

V.—CORRESPONDENCE.

EVANGELICAL UNION OF SCOTLAND.

To the Honorable the Conference of the Evangelical Union of Scotland:

BELOVED BRETHREN:—The last General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, convened in Nashville, Tenn., in May last, appointed the undersigned to respond to the very fraternal communication from your committee, composed of the Revs. Cron, Gladstone, and Ferguson. That communication was heard by our General Assembly with much pleasure, and the hearts of members were made greatly to rejoice that the fraternal correspondence so auspiciously begun, and so happily continued, was still characterized by so many marks of the Spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We fully coincide with your views, that, "If it were not a matter involving considerable expense, it would be well if delegates could carry, by the living voice, messages of good-will between our Annual Convocations respectively," and we regret that none of our laymen or ministers are visiting Europe who are likely to be present at your Convocation this autumn.

Your letter having raised the happy expectation that the Rev. George Gladstone and Mr. Hugh Lamberton might be at our General Assembly this year, there was general disappointment when it was known that they could not find it convenient to attend.

We gratefully acknowledge your congratulations on the result of the work of the two Committees on Revision of our Confession of Faith, and we are happy to inform you that the changes proposed by those committees, after some alterations and amendments by our General Assembly of 1882, were submitted to the Presbyteries of the Church, as is required by our Constitution, and that the returns to the last General Assembly show that a large majority of these bodies had adopted the changes, thus making the new book the formulated expression of the faith of our Church.

We have no doubt but that you have received, through our Stated Clerk, the Rev. T. C. Blake, D.D., copies of our Confession of Faith as revised, and that you are, therefore, fully advised of all the changes which have been made.

We are sure you will rejoice with us in the fact of the evident guidance of God's Spirit in this work of revision, and of the singular unanimity with which our people have accepted the result.

While we sympathize with you in the removal from your militant ranks of such men of God as Drs. Guthrie and Bathgate, and the Rev. Fergus Ferguson, sr., be assured, dear brethren, that we rejoice in all the evidences which come to us from over the sea of the aggressiveness of the Evangelical Union of Scotland in the work of the Lord in that Fatherland.

May the Spirit of all grace guide you in all your deliberations, and give you energy and success in all your work for Christ.

Fraternally,

A. A. MOORE.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Vicksburg, Miss., May, 1884:

MR. MODERATOR, FATHERS, AND BRETHREN:—The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session in Nashville, Tenn., in May, 1883, appointed the undersigned a committee to convey to you its fraternal greetings, and to bid you God-speed in your career of usefulness in the Master's work.

In performing this pleasant duty we wish to assure you that we are not merely complying with a conventional form, but do most sincerely greet you and salute you as brethren and co-workers, beloved in the vineyard of the Lord.

Each passing year bears the impress of the continued presence of Christ in his Church, and at its close it can erect its Ebenezer and say, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

The prayer of the great Head of the Church for his people, "That they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me," has not failed of its answer. The Church of to-day is approximating more rapidly a visible as well as an essential unity than at any previous period since the general diffusion of the gospel.

Complete oneness in all the details of Church-work and Church-polity may not be secured; nor is it essential. Paul and Barnabas disagreed and separated, but each went forward with unabated zeal in the Master's work—the one standing before kings and before the Gentiles, declaring the gospel and shaking the Roman Empire like an earthquake; the other, "full of faith and the Holy Ghost," gathering much people unto the Lord.

Papists, infidels, and scoffers may cry out against the Church as it exists, but it will go on in its manifold organization, asserting its essential unity and singleness of purpose, until at last denominational peculiarities and external forms, which have served the purpose of scaffolding, shall disappear, and a redeemed Church, unified and glorified, shall join the acclaim, "Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb forever and ever!"

The Presbyterian Church in the United States and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church occupy much geographical territory in common, and hence are thrown much in fraternal association; and there exists, we are gratified to state, a spirit of reciprocal Christian regard between the two Churches, which we trust will continue, and increase yet more and more.

The Church we represent has, within the past three years, made a thorough revision of its Confession of Faith, Catechism, Constitution, and Discipline, and although such an important work, it was accomplished in two years, and the wonderful unanimity with which it was completed is accepted by the Church as a manifest token of the Divine guidance in the work.

We herewith transmit a copy of our Revised Confession of Faith and Catechism, in which is stated briefly but clearly the system of doctrines we believe to be taught in the Holy Scriptures, the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

We send, also, a copy of the Minutes of our last General Assembly, from which we summarize the following statistics:

VI.—BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

ANNUAL RERORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at McKeesport, Pa., May 15, 1884:

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church respectfully report to your reverend body that since our last Annual Report, Brother E. T. Porter, an old and worthy member of the Board, has died, and we recommend that Dr. J. M. Zarecor, of Elkton, Ky., be appointed to fill the vacancy made by the death of the said E. T. Porter.

We further report that the Doherty fund has been invested by our Treasurer in safe interest-bearing bonds, yielding six per cent. interest per annum, and the interest on same will be due in July next.

We further report that our Treasurer has collected the remainder of the Finley bequest, which amounted to one thousand and eighty-eight dollars and sixty cents, and that he has in his hands, after deducting necessary fees and costs, eight hundred and fifty dollars, which is the full and final balance due the Church from the estate and bequest of John P. Finley, deceased.

We have not collected any of the thousand-dollar bequest made by Jas. Wilhite, deceased, late of Slater, Mo., but we have made a formal demand for the same, which we are assured will be paid in due time.

Finally, we report that we have collected twelve hundred dollars of the Samuel Woldridge bequest, of Waverly, Tenn., which amount is now subject to your order.

* From former reports.

The reports in the hands of the Stated Clerk show that 108 ministers bore letters of dismissal and recommendation at the time these reports were forwarded. But few of these had had time to join other Presbyteries when the reports were made out. Although one-half of them had not time to join Presbyteries before the reports were sent forward, yet only that number has been added to the list. Several were stricken from the roll who did not bear letters of dismissal. This was caused, no doubt, from inaccuracies of some of the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries. There are, it is confidently believed, about 1,550 ordained ministers. The entire tabular exhibit for the year, as will be seen by comparison with all previous years, gives most gratifying results. The membership has advanced nearly 10,000, and had all the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries been as active and efficient as some of them were, there is no doubt but the aggregate membership would be at least 130,000. The General Assembly, in 1883, ordered the striking out of several columns in the Statistical Table—among them "Funds Contributed for Education." This was done with the belief that that information would come up through other channels. It did not come; but the Stated Clerk, by correspondence with the proper parties, learned that about one hundred thousand dollars were contributed during the year to this vital interest. To ascertain the amounts contributed to Missions, Publication, and Ministerial Relief, all that is necessary is to examine the reports of those Boards, respectively.

The foregoing, therefore, shows the financial standing of each Presbytery on May 1, 1884. But all Presbyteries which have paid their dues since that time will, of course, receive the Minutes for this year.
